

Extract of a letter from Havre, dated February 27, Extract of a fetter from the average same a february 23 1-36.

From the 24b to this date the cetton market seemed on be stationary on the 25th it was as brisk as ever, there were 2150 bales solids on the 26th, 2350 & to day fore 240 bales. In that last number is included a sale or delivery of 1,000 bales. Georgia, middling at 135 rancs. They are bought for Beigrium.

Yesterday and to-day we experienced a little rise in the prices which might still improve next week if there are as much brainess done. But we must say that on all speciations must stop, for our stock on hand, a but 17,000 bales; If or 12,000 of which are from the lated States and a part of them is not to be disposed.

is but 17,000 bides; if or 12,000 of when are non-more in the States and a part of them is not to be disposed of.

The sales since the beginning of the year have amounted to 72,000 bales. Those of the first quarter o. 133 were 70,000. In the month of April of same year there were 43,000 bales sold; making in all 101,001 bales but in fact only 91,000 as there 9,000 bales brough back to the market. The prices rose higher than this present year, you know what was the result. After same into transactions done in May, the manufacturers having their complete stock on hand declined purchasing any more and a dead caim prevailed during three months till the end of the year.

Therefore if we persual in purchasing in March, and it the prices rise, we shall be situated oxactly as in 1835. A calm most usually comes after a storm. After such neary transactions our missalecturers fully supplied will decline purchasing hay mere. If there is not a rise in the prices we may get over the calm genson without a decline but whould be nier but whould be a heavy one. We we expecting in March 25 or 30 ships. Good Louisiana estion is very scarce and worth from 185 to 183 feature.

The latest datest received at Hayre from New Or-rity looked for.

Letter from Have of the 29th of February, says—
From the 23d to the 26th, the market had declined of 1 to 2 centimes, but had regained this decline vious to the 23th. The principal demand was lor orgia and Carolina cuttons. The manufacturers are nearly all supplied; but this, it was thought, would affect the present prices. Seek on hand, 18,000 os." les."
Another letter of the same date says. The sales of ton in January and February emeant to 66,000 bales, ack on hand, 28th, 12,000 United States, and 6000 bare services.

there sorts.

In the month of February in particular the sales to the month of February in particular the sales were very extensive, and this it was presumed would cause the market to be calm in March.

The advance in Liverpool of three farthings had no effect on the French market.

HAVES, February 29.

15th instant, our market has HAVRE, February 29.

Since our last of the 15th instant, our market has onlined to be very active, without alteration in our rices, which run from 125 a 160 for Louisians; 122 a 52 50 for Mobile; and 127 50 to 145 for Georgia counts. The sales amounted this month to 42,747 bales, Arrived in the same time 14,093 bales. Stock on hand The same activity prevails in manufactures, goods e hought as soon as brought to market.
We are of decided opinion that such demand cannot minus long. We may expect in all probability a in of long duration that will likely cause a reduction in prices.
