Baltimore, April 25. For some time past, the family and friends of R Henry, Esq. Freuch Vice Consul for the port of Baltimore, have observed, with much concern, that the gentleman was labouring under a great depression of spirits. They had hope however, from his apparent cheeffulness for several days, that his mind was about to recover its proper tools, and that the melancholy hour bad passed away. In this, we lament to say, they were deceived. Yesterday morning, the servant, going to his room to call him to breaktest, discovered him suspended, entirely liteless, from the tester of his bed. It is presumed, that pecumary embarrassments led him to commit this rash and tatal act.

We learn that the U. S. frigste Columbia, recently launched at Washington, will leave his place in a few days for the Navy yard, Gosport, where she will be fitted out. Her destination is said to be the const of Brazi, where she will hoist the broad Pennaut of Commodore Ballard.—Herald.

The ministry are progressing with great rapidity in the several reforms alluded to in the King's speech—Lord John Russell has introduced bills for enabling the Dissenters to marry in their own places of worship, and also for the more effectual registration of their births & Cr. This measure was unopposed by the Tories! His Lordship has has also introduced a bill for the general and compulsory commutation of tutes in England and Wales. The measure was unopposed by the Tories! Another bill of equal importance has been placed by the noble Lord on the table of the House of Commons, through the medium of the Attorney General, for the purpose of sm-inding the municipal Co-poration Act. This measure will be opposed by the Tories. They are already nearly crushed by the working of this law; its sugg sted atmendment would annihilate them forever except in the counties. The government however are disposed to compete with them there also; and so convince the farmers that the conservatives are not the only friends to the agriculturalists. Lord John has moved and obtained a committee the singuire into the service large to the nation. This was good generalship; it was forestalling the annual appeal of that agricultural agitator, the flarquis of Chandes, and it shows that the present ministry are more disposed to aid the farmers than the last. The Lord Chancellor has brought forward a bill for the purpose of doing away with the strange pereguives and extraordinary jurisdiction of the Ecclesiastical Courtains founded by monkish bigotry, fostered by the fiercest intolerance, and continued up to the present moment in a spint more in accordance to the days that are departed. The Attorney General has brought in bills relative to the laws regulating ren' property, which bet a few years ago would have been denounced by the nonassition of the celebrated lecturer. Saturday a public meeting was held at the Freemasons' Tavern for the purpose, as stated in the bills, of raising a subscription for the relief of the sulfierers by this calamity. Mr. O'Connell then moved the first resolution, expressing a sympathy with the sufferers, which he introduced with a speech stating their claims as the asserters of liberty and descended from the same stock.

The bill was committed and the House went not committee of the whole on the bill, and it was reported, without answerd.
