United States Daily Mail Line from New Orleans to Mobile.

BY STEAM PACKETS—NO LAND CARRIAGE

The above line is composed of four splendid steamers of first class, viz:

ALERT.....CHARLES WALKER, Master.
MAZEPPA.....SUTTON, do.
LEONIDAS.....COULTER, do.
SOUTH ALABAMA.....CHANDLER, do.

The above Boats are fitted up for the trade and commanded by able and experienced seamen. In consequence of the very light draught of the above boats they are enabled to take the inner passage, consequently passengers escape annoyance of sea sickness attending on the outside rout. The strictest punctuality will be observed in their time of starting, and every attention paid to the comfort of passengers.

An arrangement has been made with the Florida line, by which passengers bound for Tallahassee, New York, Philadelphia or Norfolk, who do not wish the delay of stopping in Mobile, will be transfered to the Watchman and those returning from Pensacola, by the Watchman to the mail boat—affording great accomodation to persons travelling northward or to parties of pleasure who may wish to visit the healthy city of Pensacola.

The Watchman leaves Mobile yester day April 27th, and will continue to leave every other day until further notice.

The mail boats leave the Lake end of the Rail Road immediately after the 3 o'clock cars, and Mobile at half past nine A. M.

For freight or passage apply to
TOURNE & BECKWITH.
No. 28 & 29, New Levee.
DOCKERAY & GLENN or
HAMILTON & SMITH, Mobile.

N. B. Passengers by the above line have the preference in mail lines leaving Mobile.

Dinners will be given on board the boats at Three o'clock p m.

After the first of May all the above boats will receive and land passengers at all the intermediate land ings. April 28

PARISH OF ORLEANS.—Court of Probates—The State of Louisiana.—To all whom these presents may concern,—Greeting: Know ye that whereas James Armor, a resident of the city of New Orleans, has applied to me W. F. C. Duplessis, register of wills in and for the parish and city of New Orleans, and ex officio clerk of the court of probates in and for the parish and city of New Orleans aforesaid, for a monition or advertisement, in conformity to the act of the Legislature of the State, entitled "An Act for the further assurance of titles to purchasers at judicial sales," approved on the 10th, March 1834. Notice is hereby given to all whom it may concern that by virtue of and in obedience to an order rendered by the Honorable the Court of Probates in and for the Parish and city of New Orleans, State of Louisiana, in the matter of the succession of Harriett Hooke, deceased, said order bearing date the twenty seventh day of May one thousand eight hundred and thirty five, granted on the petition of the undersigned acting executor of the last Will and Testament of said Stephen K. Baron deceased, the undersigned did as Register of Wills aforesaid on the second day of July one thousand eight hundred and thirty five, expose for public sale by auction for account of the succession of the late Stephen K. Baron, deceased, the following described landed property, which was adjudicated to the said James Armor, as the last and highest bidder, to wit:

Description of the property as given in the judicial conveyance.

Eight lots of ground situated in the suburb St Mary of this city of New Orleans, on the west side of St Charles street, between Canal and Common streets—said lot being designated as lot number twenty, on a plan drawn by Joseph Pilie, city surveyor, and annexed to an act of transaction or compromise passed between the vendors of said lot and the testamentary executors of the late Barthelemy Lafon before Michel de Armas, late notary public in said city, on the 6th day of April, 1821: said lot of ground measuring thirty three feet in front on St Charles street, by a depth of one hundred and eighteen feet and eight inches on the side towards Canal street, and one hundred and sixteen feet four inches towards Common street, and having in the rear a breadth equal to the front, together with the improvements and appurtenances thereunto belonging, adjudicated to James Armor for the price of sixteen thousand one hundred dollars.

2nd. Another lot or portion of ground, situated in the said suburb St Mary of this city of New Orleans, composed of all that part of the lot designated on the above mentioned plan, as lot number seventeen which is in the rear of the said lot number twenty, and that other equal half towards St Charles street of what remains of said lot number seventeen, after deducting therefrom all that part thereof which is in the rear of lots number twenty and number twenty one; said portion of ground measuring sixteen feet — inches front on Common street, by a depth of seventy five feet, and then thirty three feet wide by a further depth of thirty two feet, forming a right angle with the above described lot on St Charles street, adjudicated to James Armor for the price of six thousand dollars.

Conditions of the sale: One fifth cash, and the balance at a credit of one, two and three years for approved endorsed notes, secured by special mortgage until final payment.

Wherefore all persons who can set up any right title or claim in and to the two lots of ground, buildings &c herein described, in consequence of informality in the order, decree or judgment before recited, and under which the sale was made, or any irregularity or illegality in the appraisements or advertisements, in time or manner of sale, or for any other cause or defect whatsoever; are hereby cited and admonished to show cause within thirty days from the day this monition is first inserted in the public papers, why the sale so made as aforesaid, should not be confirmed and homologated, in accordance with the application of said purchaser.

Witness my hand and the Seal of said Court of Probates, this seventeenth day of May, A. D. 1836.
