

COMMERCIAL

LATE

New York, Liverpool, &c.

London, Paris, &c.

Paris, Liverpool, &c.

Hamburg, &c.

Stocks, &c.

Cotton.

A few hundred bales were effected today, but too soon—No. 10 cotton New Orleans, $100 per bale, $100 to $120 per bale.

Flour—The bbl 90¢ to 75¢.

Wheat—$1.00 to 90¢ per bushel.

Cotton—$40 to $50 per bale.

Rice—$40 to $50 per bale.

The Market—There have been sales of wheat, on average, at $5.75 per bushel, of North country grain, though bakers say a higher price.

Rice—$40 per bale sold at $1.00 a bale.

Cotton—Without much change, though bales new northern in prime order brought 81.

Flour—Starched 50¢ northern flour.

Bacon—Sales continue on a high demand, and prices tendency upwards.

Cotton—A fair business is continued, mostly prime—The sales of cottons begin to decline slightly at 75.75. Sales are still good, however, and are expected to continue.

New York, Dec. 3.

118 shares U.S. Bank. 1250—1250

55 do N.O. City Bk. 1000—1000

1 do N.O. Commercial Bk. 1000—1000

37 do N.O. Natl. Bk. 1000—1000

109 do N.O. Trust Co. 1000—1000

The Market—In the second market there is a tenfold increase in cottons.

Cotton—The price of cotton is now

fluctuating—The price of cotton is now