BY DOMINION & BARNETT.

ON Tuesday 21 inst, at the Arcade Exchange will be sold—

234 lots of ground, being the subdivision of suburb Jackson, and well known as the land of F Huet situated on the Metairie Ridge.

Said lots of ground are all very high and suited for gardening purposes; they would also form very desirable country residences, as they are in the most convenient and beautiful situation near the very centre of business. Three very good roads lead to these lots, one from the city of New Orleans, along the new canal, from which they are not more than 100 yards distant, the second is the Bayou and Metairie roads, the third is the Shell road, as we intend to cause a street through which the New Orleans and Nashville railroad is laid. It must be evident that these lots are the most desirable of any offered for sale to the public.

Terms—10 per cent cash, 10 per cent at 6 months and the balance at 1, 2, 3 and 4 years for above endorsed notes to the satisfaction of the vendors. Acts of sale before Joseph Caroll ez Esq, notary public at the expense of purchasers as well as the taking possession.

10 per cent in cash must be deposited in the notaries hands within 48 hours after the adjudication, on penalty of making the sale null and void.

Sale to be without reserve. feb 11
