New Orleans Catholic Association for the relief of male Orphans.

A meeting of this society will be held on Sunday evening next, at 5 o'clock, in the public school room, in Conde st, near Barracks.

A punctual and full attendance is expected from members, having the interest of the Institution at heart. It is necessary that we pull all together, in order to render our society as beneficial as it ought to be in a great City like this.

Let us therefore act energetically, in a way becoming men and philanthropists, mutually emulous of well doing

There are now 48 interesting boys in our Asylum (and others praying to be admitted,) looking up to us for that support that we individually have pledged ourselves to give them to a certain extent, in their quality of our adopted children.

Shall their appeal be disregarded? Let the response be, no in deed.
