LIVERPOOL COTTON MARKET.

The following is the latest accounts of the Liverpool markets:

LIVERPOOL, Saturday morning, April 2.

As I stated on the 30th ult. that we got through without 10,000 bales, I have now to add that we have received 10,000 bales since, and that the latter could have been got through without any inconvenience to the trade, but for the Bank holidays, which have thrown a stoppage in the way of delivery, and will continue to do so for the next week. The Military Review, which takes place on Monday next, is stated
