United States Daily Mail Line from New Orleans to Mobile.

BY STEAM PACKETS—NO LAND CARRIAGE

The above line is composed of four splendid steamers of first class, viz:

MAZEPPA	SUTTON,	Master.
LEONIDAS	COULTER,	do.
SOUTH ALABAMA	CHANDLER,	do.

The above Boats are fitted up for the trade and commanded by able and experienced seamen. In consequence of the very light draught of the above boats they are enabled to take the inner passages, consequently passengers escape annoyance of sea sickness attendant on the outside route. The strictest punctuality will be observed in their time of starting, and every attention paid to the comfort of passengers.

An arrangement has been made with the Florida line, by which passengers bound for Tallahassee, New York, Philadelphia or Norfolk, who do not wish the delay of stopping in Mobile, will be transferred to the Watchman and those returning from Pensacola, by the Watchman to the mail boat—affording great accommodation to persons travelling northward or to parties of pleasure who may wish to visit the healthy city of Pensacola.

The Watchman leaves Mobile every day, April 27th, and will continue to leave every other day until further notice.

The Steamers leave the Lake end of the Rail Road immediately after the 3 o'clock cars, and Mobile at half past nine A. M.

For freight or passage apply to TOURNE & BECKWITH, No. 28 & 29, New Levee. DOCKERAY & GLENN or HAMILTON & SMITH, Mobile.

N. B. Passengers by the above line have the preference in mail lines leaving Mobile. june8

These nails are made at their extensive manufactories, one of which is known by the name of the Phœnix and the other the Cumberland works.

The kegs bear the appropriate stamps, those stamped Phœnix are flat grape and those stamped Cumberland are cut grape.

These nails have been long and favourably esteemed and it is presumed their quality is well known in this market.

REEVES & WHITAKER, may 17-6m No 209 Market st, Philadelphia.

WHEREAS, the subscriber executed and delivered on the 6th day of March last, to Timoleon Lecesne, Esq. in part payment of a plantation, slaves, &c. then purchased of him, four promissory notes of that date, made to the order of Robert D. Percy, payable at the office of Discount and Deposit of the Union Bank of Louisiana, at Plaquemine. Two for the sum of six thousand dollars each, payable three years after date, and two for the like sum of six thousand dollars each, payable four years after date.

And whereas, the consideration of the said notes has wholly failed, the subscriber therefore cautions the public against receiving or trading for the said notes, as he will not pay them or either of them, unless compelled by law.
