PROCLAMATION
BY EDWARD D. WHITE,
Governor of the State of Louisiana.

Whereas, Electors of a President and Vice President of the United States, are to be chosen for this State, on the first Monday of the month of November next, and the two following days, to-wit:

One for the first electoral district, composed of the parishes of Plaquemines, St. Bernard, Orleans and Jefferson.

One for the second electoral district, composed of the parishes of West Feliciana, East Feliciana, East Baton Rouge, St. Helena, Livingston, Washington and St. Tammany.

One for the third electoral district, composed of the parishes of St Charles, St John the Baptist, St. James, Ascension, Assumption, Terrebonne and Lafourche Interior.

One for the fourth electoral district, composed of the parishes of Iberville, West Baton Rouge, Lafayette, St Martin, St Mary and St Landry.

And one for the fifth electoral district, composed of the parishes of Point Coupee, Avoyelles, Rapides, Natchitoches, Claiborne, Catahoula, Ouachita, Concordia and Carroll.

And whereas it is provided by law, that on the days aforesaid every citizen of this State entitled to a vote shall have a right to vote for five persons as electors, all of whom shall reside in different electoral districts from each other:

Now, therefore, I have thought proper to issue this my Proclamation, notifying all electors throughout the State, of the said elections; and commanding all parish Judges, Sheriffs and other officers therein concerned, that the aforesaid elections on the days above mentioned, within their respective districts, counties and parishes, are to continue to be conducted, and due return thereof to be made in the manner and within the time prescribed by law.

GIVEN under my hand and the seal of the State, at the city of New Orleans on this thirteenth day of September, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty six, and of the Independence of the United States the sixty first.

By the Governor:
E. D. WHITE.
MARTIN BLACHE,
Secretary of State.

PROBATE SALE.

WILL be sold at public auction, by the subscribing Parish Judge of the interior parish of Lafourche, on Monday the 31 of October, 1836, at 10 o'clock in the morning, at the Temple on Lake Barataria, at about fifteen miles from Bayou Lafourche, and near the mouth of bayou des Allemands or de la Ville, the property left by the late Antonio Dias, or formerly in community between him and Marie Faye, his surviving wife, to-wit:

1st. The said spot called the Temple, containing about 17 arpents front, with a number of buildings thereon:

N. B. The Temple is one of the finest sites in lower Louisiana; it is situated on Lake Barataria or Perrier's Bay, at a distance only of several hundred yards from the Barataria and Lafourche Canal; it is entirely composed of ridges and mounds of muscle shells, yielding good lime and an excellent substitute for paving pebbles. In the mounds have been frequently found curious Indian antiquities. The vine thrives there to perfection, and the orange plum and peach trees grow on the beach, with surprising luxuriance. The place would be a very eligible one for a Hotel or Villa, and procure to visitors, in its fullest extent, the sports of angling, seining, duck shooting, &c, and the pleasure of bathing, &c. &c.

2d. A certain tract of land, situate in the said parish, on the right bank of Bayou des Allemands, at about twelve miles from the Temple, and perhaps at nine miles in a straight line from Bayou Lafourche, which tract measures twelve arpents, or thereabout, in front, by forty arpents in depth.

3d. Another tract of land, known under the name of Vacherie Domé, situate on the left bank of bayou des Allemands, in the parish of St Charles, nearly opposite the tract last above described, distant about five leagues from the river Mississippi, and comprised between bayou Sant d'Ours, Lake Mulin and bayou Domé, with a large stock of milch cows, other cattle and sheep.

4th. A tract of land measuring two arpents, more or less, front, by 40 arpents in depth, situate in the interior parish of Lafourche, on the right bank of bayou Lafourche, at about fourteen miles below Thibadeauxville.

5th. Another tract of land, measuring six arpents, more or less, front, by 40 arpents in depth, situate in the interior parish of Lafourche, on the left bank of bayou Lafourche, at about 21 miles below Thibadeauxville, and at a small distance above the intended junction of the Barataria Canal, with bayou Lafourche.

6th. A negro slave, who is an excellent hunter, boatsman and fisherman.

7th. A likely negro girl, about 17 years of age a good washer and ironer.

8th. About 20 fowling pieces, guns, muskets or rifles, together with pistols, shot, &c.

9th. About 20 boats, canoes, skiffs or hunting pirogues.

10th. A number of milch cows and other cattle at the Temple.

11th. Vast nets, tools, implements of husbandry, furniture, liquors, &c. &c.

TERMS.—The plantation and slaves payable by fourths, one in all and each of the months of March of the years, 1837, 1838, 1839 and 1840, remaining especially mortgaged until final payment; the other articles payable all sums not exceeding $10; the whole in March, 1837; sums exceeding $10, by halves, in March 1837 and 1838. All purchasers being bound to give security.
