LE DEPOORTER, Dentist, has the honor of informing his friends and the public in general, that he has decided to take up his residence in this city. The apparatus which he has just received from France, enables him to manufacture complete sets of teeth of enammeled gold, in which the fleshy parts of the mouth are perfectly imitated—likewise, metallic palates, stoppers, &c &c. Mineral and human teeth inserted on pivots, and plates, mouth pieces, &c.

He recommends parents having children, whose teeth cut in an irregular manner, to attend to the matter in time, and not to overlook the assistance which art can give to nature, and which makes a pretty mouth an object available to all young people.

Ladies operated on in their own houses, when desired.
