

PRINTED AND PUBLISHED DAILY
Editor of the State, General Counsel, and of the First and Third Sections.

TUESDAY MORNING, DEC. 11, 1857.

NEW ORLEANS
BY THE MEMPHIS DAILY NEWS.

THE members of the Democratic will take office Friday the 22d instant, at the old Orleans Theatre Hall (now Davis' Opera House), in New Orleans, in the choice of a Constitutional Convention, it is considered, by one of the most important.

The Speaker announced, and appointed on the platform, for the leader, George, Hazen, of the Democratic party, and President.

Mr. McDonald, in his speech, advised the people to be patient, and to let the election be delayed, and he further stated that the Union was not in its ascendancy.

He further said that it was the duty of the people to make up their minds, and then to act.

The New Era, journal published in N. York, once so well known, and so successfully devoted to the promotion and support of democratic principles, resumes the editor of a special number.

We can see now that the New Era is composed with an admirable and forcible language.

ARRIVED.

The last Phonix, from the Press, is well designed, and well printed, and the newspaper is well written.

It is well worth reading.

It is well worth reading.