SUPPLEMENT TO THE BEE.

NEW ORLEANS, MONDAY, FEBRUARY 5, 1838.

A BEAUTIFUL HEAD OF HAIR

is of most consequence to the ladies of France. How strangely the loss of it changes the countenance and prematurely brings on the appearance of old age, which causes many to regret the day they ever used, and sometimes even to curse the name of those lying pretenders to the wonderful virtues of their lying nostrums, which, instead of performing what they promise, actually destroy the little hair that remains. I therefore, for the benefit of the community, and more particularly the ladies, do pledge myself to the public, that the genuine Balsam of Columbus will restore hair on the head, where it has been destroyed by the use of mercurial preparations, or any other cause, more beautifully and speedily than any other article ever offered to the public. Those who have used it can testify to its virtues, and those who have not, can be convinced by calling at the general depot, 74 Chartres street, where they can see certificates of the first respectability, and also the names of those who have used it, and who will recommend it to the public. Price only $1 per bottle. Sold also by the following gentlemen as their agents:

ROBERT WHARTON, Esq. late Mayor of Philadelphia, and many others, whose names have been used without their consent, it having been discovered by Dr. Oldridge, and they have found it highly necessary to call on and apply to the genuine Balsam of Columbus, and only agree to recommend it on that account. Beware of counterfeits, as there are many of the first respectability who have been imposed upon by the villany of Oldridge's agents.

WM. THATCHER, sole agent.

Those who have occasion to send money to any part of the country, may be desirous to remit it in the notes of solvent banks, but at the same time not exactly know what notes are current in the neighborhood of the different banks; to such persons the following table will be found useful, as it contains the names of all the banks in the United States, whose notes are current in the vicinity of the above mentioned city, with the discount to be allowed on the notes of each bank. The table was carefully corrected to the 1st inst. from the Reporter of the Court of Errors, and may be relied on as correct.

From the Mayor.

CHAMBER OF THE CORPORATION,
City of Philadelphia.

I, ROBERT WHARTON, mayor of said city, do hereby declare, that the property of Peter Duplessis, deceased, was sold by the sheriff of said city, on the 21st day of January, 1828, to Messrs. Percy & Hogg McCauley, who are known to me to be men of the highest integrity, that the property was sold at a fair public sale, and that the sheriff's deed was executed in the usual form, and is valid in law. Given under my hand and the seal of the corporation of the city of Philadelphia, this 30th day of January, 1828.

ROBERT WHARTON, Mayor.

CAUTION.—All persons are hereby cautioned against the genuine Sublimated Mercurial Ointment, or Pain Killer, as I have discovered a counterfeit, which I intend to prosecute to the utmost rigor of the law. Be sure to ask for Dr. Sherman's Pain Killer, and see that my name is on the outside wrapper of the box, as none are genuine without it. Sold by the proprietor, at his Medical Depot, 277 Broadway, New York, and by his agents, Messrs. Hart & Co., Canal & Levy, and Storms.

Also by Simmons, Hart & Co., Canal & Levy, and Storms. feb14 1y
