AGENCY AT WASHINGTON CITY.

FRANCIS A DICKENS of the City of Washington, having re-assumed the agency confided by him for a great many years in the Treasury and War Departments, has his office in the City of Columbia, before Congress, and other branches of the Government, including Commissioners under Treaties and the various public offices. He will attend to all preemption claims, the obtaining of patents for public lands,—claims for horses lost in the service of the United States,—claims for Revolutionary and Navy Pensions,—Claims for Bounty Land,—as well those against the State of Virginia as the United States. All Claims growing out of Contracts with the Government, or Damages sustained in consequence of the actions or conduct of the Government, and refused, any business or law suits before the Public Offices which may require the aid of an agent or attorney. His charges will be moderate, depending upon the amount or the sum and the extent of the services.

Mr DICKENS is known to most of those who have been in Congress within the last few years, or who have attended to any public business at the City.

All letters must be post paid.

A BEAUTIFUL HEAD OF HAIR is the greatest ornament belonging to the human frame. How strange it is then that people the most intimate and proximately hungry on the appearance of old age, which causes many, in order to avoid discovered, and sometimes even to shun visits to avoid the jests and sneers of their acquaintances, the reminder of their love-locks commences upon the temples, or short, not even the loss of property fills the generous thinking youth with that heavy sinking gloom as does the loved tint hair. To avoid all of the disagreeable circumstances, OLDRIDGE'S BALM OF COLUMBIA stops the hair from falling off in the first application and a few bottles restores it again. It likewise produces a new growth of hair, prevents it from ever turning grey, makes it curl beautifully, and frees it from scurf. Numerous certificates of the first respectability in support of the virtues of Oldridge's Balm, are shown by the proprietors.

☞ Read the following:

ROBERT WHARTON, late the Mayor of Philadelphia, has certified, as may be seen in how, to the high character of the following gentlemen.

The undersigned do hereby certify that we have used the Balm of Columbia prepared by J. Oldridge, and have found it highly serviceable not only as a preventive against the falling off of the hair, but as certain restorative.
