THE BEE.

PRINTED AND PUBLISHED BY J. LYON,
PRINTER FOR THE STATE GENERAL COMMITTEE, AND FOR THE FIRST AND THIRD BRIGADES.

NEW ORLEANS:
MONDAY MORNING, APRIL 23, 1838.

FOR GOVERNOR,
A. B. ROMAN.

Extract from the Journal of the Senate of the 6th Feb 1835.

Resolved, That the Senate of the State of Louisiana, approve of the general course of the administration of the late governor, A. B. Roman; and has seen no cause with him on his return from office, a grateful remembrance of the members of this

Resolved, That the President of the Senate be requested to send a copy of this resolution to Mr. Roman.

Extract from the Journal of the House, of the 3d Feb 1835.

Resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Louisiana, that the administration of the late governor, A. B. Roman, has been marked by wisdom, firmness, and an honest zeal for the public service; that he has exhibited in the discharge of the duties, he has exhibited himself to the confidence of the people, and has given no cause for censure; that he leaves the office with the entire confidence of the people of this State, and with their personal esteem and regard.

Resolved, That the Speaker of the House transmit to Governor Roman a copy of these resolutions.

Representative, 1st District, to Congress,
JOHN SLIDELL.

FOR THE SENATE OF LOUISIANA,
ALBERT HOA.

The Orphan Asylum

Will be the custom to-morrow Saturday evening at the St Louis Exchange, and displayed more than one hundred Orphans, whose comfortable looks and graceful smiles seemed to express the satisfaction to the immense multitude whose benevolence had prompted them to [illegible] fully and [illegible] to the claims of charity. We felt proud of New Orleans, proud of the institution which we hailed as the offspring of her generous heart, and proud of [illegible] and [illegible] to [illegible] to lavish sympathy and bounty on the parentless children who stood before us, and when the bright intelligent boy who [illegible] the address stepped forward and with [illegible] expressed the orphans' cause and spoke [illegible] thanks, we were not ashamed of the tear [illegible] to our eyes, especially when we looked [illegible] on the scattered orbs of the generous [illegible] who crowded the dress circle. It [illegible] a splendid treasure and expand the [illegible]

The Orphan Asylum has long pursued in New Orleans [illegible] struggling with hardships, struggling [illegible] many difficulties, and receiving but [illegible] remembrance of the members of this [illegible]

Resolved, That the President of the Senate be requested to send a copy of this resolution to Mr. Roman.

Extract from the Journal of the House, of the 3d Feb 1835.

Resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Louisiana, that the administration of the late governor, A. B. Roman, has been marked by wisdom, firmness, and an honest zeal for the public service; that he has exhibited in the discharge of the duties, he has exhibited himself to the confidence of the people, and has given no cause for censure; that he leaves the office with the entire confidence of the people of this State, and with their personal esteem and regard.

Resolved, That the Speaker of the House transmit to Governor Roman a copy of these resolutions.

Representative, 1st District, to Congress,
JOHN SLIDELL.

FOR THE SENATE OF LOUISIANA,
ALBERT HOA.

The Orphan Asylum

Will be the custom to-morrow Saturday evening at the St Louis Exchange, and displayed more than one hundred Orphans, whose comfortable looks and graceful smiles seemed to express the satisfaction to the immense multitude whose benevolence had prompted them to [illegible] fully and [illegible] to the claims of charity. We felt proud of New Orleans, proud of the institution which we hailed as the offspring of her generous heart, and proud of [illegible] and [illegible] to [illegible] to lavish sympathy and bounty on the parentless children who stood before us, and when the bright intelligent boy who [illegible] the address stepped forward and with [illegible] expressed the orphans' cause and spoke [illegible] thanks, we were not ashamed of the tear [illegible] to our eyes, especially when we looked [illegible] on the scattered orbs of the generous [illegible] who crowded the dress circle. It [illegible] a splendid treasure and expand the [illegible]

The Orphan Asylum has long pursued in New Orleans [illegible] struggling with hardships, struggling [illegible] many difficulties, and receiving but [illegible] remembrance of the members of this [illegible]

FOR ST LOUIS & ALTON

[illegible] Pittsburg, Wheeling, Portsmouth, Maysville, Cincinnati, Madison and Louisville.

FOR CINCINNATI

COMMERCIAL

Mobile, April 21

[illegible] Arkansas [illegible] 3,309 bales cotton, 420 bales [illegible] Tennessee [illegible] 1,366. Market dull. Receipts [illegible] 1,000. Previous sales [illegible] 53,154.

Received, That the President of the Senate be requested to send a copy of this resolution to Mr. Roman.

Extract from the Journal of the House, of the 3d Feb 1835.

Resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Louisiana, that the administration of the late governor, A. B. Roman, has been marked by wisdom, firmness, and an honest zeal for the public service; that he has exhibited in the discharge of the duties, he has exhibited himself to the confidence of the people, and has given no cause for censure; that he leaves the office with the entire confidence of the people of this State, and with their personal esteem and regard.

Resolved, That the Speaker of the House transmit to Governor Roman a copy of these resolutions.

Representative, 1st District, to Congress,
JOHN SLIDELL.

FOR THE SENATE OF LOUISIANA,
ALBERT HOA.

The Orphan Asylum

Will be the custom to-morrow Saturday evening at the St Louis Exchange, and displayed more than one hundred Orphans, whose comfortable looks and graceful smiles seemed to express the satisfaction to the immense multitude whose benevolence had prompted them to [illegible] fully and [illegible] to the claims of charity. We felt proud of New Orleans, proud of the institution which we hailed as the offspring of her generous heart, and proud of [illegible] and [illegible] to [illegible] to lavish sympathy and bounty on the parentless children who stood before us, and when the bright intelligent boy who [illegible] the address stepped forward and with [illegible] expressed the orphans' cause and spoke [illegible] thanks, we were not ashamed of the tear [illegible] to our eyes, especially when we looked [illegible] on the scattered orbs of the generous [illegible] who crowded the dress circle. It [illegible] a splendid treasure and expand the [illegible]

The Orphan Asylum has long pursued in New Orleans [illegible] struggling with hardships, struggling [illegible] many difficulties, and receiving but [illegible] remembrance of the members of this [illegible]

MR BIDDLE'S LETTER

The quarrel of the United States Bank was more [illegible] exchanging [illegible] in the [illegible] of [illegible] to Pennsylvania [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]