NEW ORLEANS, FRIDAY MORNING, MAY 18, 1853.

PROCLAMATION: Whereas the President of the United States has appointed J. B. ROSS, Esq., to be the Register of the Land Office, and to perform the duties of that office, and whereas the said J. B. ROSS has taken the oaths of office and qualification, and is ready to enter upon the discharge of his duties, I do hereby proclaim that the said J. B. ROSS is the Register of the Land Office, and that he is authorized to perform the duties of that office, and to receive the fees and emoluments thereon, and that he is to hold office until he shall be removed or until his successor shall be appointed and qualified.

FOR SALE: A large lot of land, situated in the parish of St. Charles, Louisiana, containing about 100 acres, and bounded on the north by the parish of St. Louis, on the east by the parish of St. James, on the south by the parish of St. Bernard, and on the west by the parish of St. John the Baptist. The land is well adapted for planting sugar cane, and is now being cultivated by the late owner. It is offered for sale at a very low price, and is a rare opportunity for any person desiring to purchase a large tract of land in Louisiana. For further particulars, apply to the undersigned at No. 110, Chartres Street, New Orleans.
