PENMANSHIP.

Practical and Ornamental. Taught at DOLBEAR & BROTHERS' Writing Academy, No 8 Chartres street.—The extensive patronage which the method of Writing has received in various parts of the United States, and the increasing application for instructions in the science, as well as the practice of Writing, has induced them to establish permanent Academies in New York, New Orleans and Mobile; and in their approaching annual session they will have every facility for the acquisition of Penmanship, than are afforded by any other institution in the country. Persons entering one of them has the privilege of attending at either of the Others, free of charge. The Ladies and gentlemen are respectfully invited to call. Specimens of rapid improvement given by persons from 8 to 60 years of age, who have received lessons in this city under the care of the subscribers. Lessons given every day in the week at any hour of the day. Ladies and gentlemen, and others attending after candle light, can have a special class arranged for their accommodation. Specimens of ornamental writing, suited to Albums, Notes of Compliment, &c. Gentlemen are taught a free and expeditious handwriting calculated to facilitate business transactions, by dispensing with the delay that must be experienced in the hieroglyphical scrawl of most mercantile hands, and imparting to the clerk a style at once rapid and elegant. Persons visiting the city for only a few days will receive special attention.

The number of Learners is not limited, but every person who enters is desired to remain till he writes sufficiently well for any kind of business. This is the interest of both teacher and pupil.

Ladies who prefer it can receive lessons at their own residences. Ornamental writing executed with elegance.

N. B. Dolbear's "Science of Penmanship" particularly designed for private learners and schools, and calculated for persons of all ages, imparting an ease and freedom not attained by any other method. Also, Dob's a very handy book for female seminaries intended as a supplement to the science of Penmanship, for sale here. ap 5

A BEAUTIFUL HEAD OF HAIR is the greatest ornament belonging to the human frame. How strangely the loss of it changes the countenance, and destroys the animation of youth and age, which causes many to resort at being early old, and sometimes even a total eclipse to avoid the loss and ravages of Time; and as a remedy for remainder of hair there are good results by the use of Bogle's Hyperion Fluid—the loss of property sinks the generous mind in thinking youth wish that heavy sinking system as does the head of his hair. To avert all those unpleasant circumstances, COLDWELL'S BALM OF COLUMBIA stops the hair from falling off on the first application and a few bottles restores it again. It likewise produces eyebrows and whiskers promotes the hair when turning grey, restores it naturally and is an unfailing specific. Numerous certificates of the first respectability in support of the virtues of O dridge's Balm, are shown by the proprietors.

☞ Beware of counterfeits.

ROBERT WHARTON, Esq. late Mayor of Philadelphia, has certified, as may be seen below, to the superiority of the following gentlemen.

The undersigned do declare the certificate given by Robert Wharton, Esq. Mayor of Philadelphia, to be correct in every particular, and we do hereby certify that we have used Dr. Eldridge's Balm of Columbia discovered by J. Eldridge, and have found it highly serviceable not only as a preventive against the falling off of hair, but also a certain restorative. WM. TURNER, Jr. & Co
