A BEAUTIFUL HEAD OF HAIR is the greatest ornament belonging to the human frame. How strangely the loss of it changes the countenance and prematurely brings on the appearance of old age, which causes many to resort at being uncovered, and sometimes even to shun society to avoid the taunts and sneers of their acquaintance; the remainder of their lives are consequently spent in retirement. In short, no even the loss of property fills the nervous think so much with that heavy sinking alone as does the loss of his hair. To avoid all such unpleasant circumstances, OLDRIDGE'S BALM OF COLUMBIA stops the hair from falling off on the first application, and a few bottles restores it again. It likewise produces eyebrows and whiskers, prevents the hair from turning grey, makes it curl beautifully, and frees it from scurf. Numerous certificates of its wonderful efficacy in the restoration of the hair, and its responsibility in support of the virtues of Oldridge's Balm, are shown by the proprietors.

ROBERT WHARTON, Esq. late Mayor of Philadelphia, has certified, as also he soon below, to the high character of the following gentlemen:

The undersigned do hereby certify that we have used the Balm of Columbia discovered by J. Oldridge, and have found it highly serviceable in curing dandruff, and as a preventive against the falling off of the hair, and do not hesitate to recommend it to the public as a valuable article.

WM THATCHER, senior,
Methodist Minister in St. George charge,

I, ROBERT WHARTON, Mayor of the City of Philadelphia, do hereby certify that Jonathan Penrose, Esq. of this city, is well known to me personally, and that I have also known Joseph Perry, Hugh M'Curdy, whose names are signed to the above certificate, that they are gentlemen of character and respectability, and as such full credit should be given to their certificate.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand, and caused the Seal of the Mayoralty of the City of Philadelphia to be affixed, this 5th day of December, A. D. 1837.

ROBERT WHARTON, Mayor.

CAUTION.—Observe that each portion of the genuine article is signed by the proprietor, and has the name of the Falls of Niagara, the agent's name, &c.
