The New Orleans Bee.

OFFICIAL GAZETTE OF THE STATE AND OF THE FIRST MUNICIPALITY, BY JEROME BAYON, No. 91, CHARTRES.

No. 89. NEW-ORLEANS, MONDAY MORNING, DECEMBER 31, 1838. Vol. XII.

TERMS OF THE BEE.

Subscription.—Twelve Dollars for the Daily Paper per annum, payable annually in advance—Five dollars for the tri-weekly Bee—Four dollars per year in advance, where neither of these papers are delivered by carriers, or served from news rooms, nothing less than a year's subscription will be received, and no notice, in writing, of a wish to discontinue, will be taken unless accompanied with the amount due for the time the paper has been sent.

Advertising.—Eight lines, or less, for the first insertion, and Half Dollar for each subsequent insertion. Long mercantile advertisements from the Original, will be charged at the rate of Two Dollars per square, for the first insertion, and One Dollar for each subsequent insertion. Auction sales, Theatrical notices, Religious notices, Military orders, Political notices, Marriages and Deaths, Steamboat and Packet notices, and Lottery advertisements, will be charged at the rate of Two Dollars per square, for each insertion. Shipping notices, Factory