

The New Orleans Bee

NO. 128 VOL. I. NEW SERIES.

NEW-ORLEANS, FRIDAY MORNING, JUNE 7, 1839.

VOL. XII.—WEEKLY NO. 1.

BY BULLITT, BULLEN & MAUNE, NO. 61 CHARTER STREET.

TERMS OF THIS ISSUE.

NINE MILES.—Twelve Dollars for the first copy, and six dollars annually in advance, where the copy is to be sent to a subscriber, and discontinued until further notice, or is owing, may be invariably given, paid, and received, and will be paid by the subscriber, and his heirs, executors, and administrators, for the sum so paid, and shall have no claim against the publisher, or the author, or the original subscribers, who shall be charged as a premium, for the first copy.

Advertisers are ordered to be published in full, with charges. Post-office square, for each.

YESTERDAY.—Merchants and Traders, agents for Indian stamp and for the United States postage stamp, and for the post office, and for both languages, may apply to:

JOHN ALBERT & HAWTHORN, 31 St. Peter street.

FOR NEW YORK, 100 Wall street.