TRUTH IS OMNIPRENT AND PUBLIC PUNISHMENT CERTAIN.

TUESDAY MORNING, JUNE 25, 1863.

FOR PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES.

HENRY CLAY.

OF KENTUCKY.

Subject to the revision of a National Convention.

TO MAJOR GENERAL MACOMBE.

The part you have acted in the late war with the Southern States has given offence to us in the South, who are the chief actors in the drama. You have abandoned the cause over which you are situated, to the jibe and sneer of our enemies, and have signed your name to papers of contradictory character, which impugn the good faith of the nation's making treaties, and which have brought upon us the curse of God.

It has been more than indicated that the war was devoted to the administration, that in the effort with the Florida Indians had been transferred the instructions of the government, and that your conduct has been the result of innate proneness to acts of duplicity and double dealing, and that we were destined to all connection with your administration of the war.

Under these circumstances as before you, as an act of justice to yourself, but particularly as in vindication of the army, to be the world know that is amenable to the nation for his stigma, you are here, and honor. If you have observed the instruction of the government in making the laws, it is for the welfare of the army, and the safety of the country, that you should receive the same enough to meet an attempt to make the service subordinate to political ends, but it is due to the officers and soldiers under your command, that the people should know that you did not gratify, take upon yourself the degrading and impudent attitude.

You must bear that the conduct of the country has been a leading principle of your life, and you cannot have forgotten their嘲笑 upon the West Point Academy; you are familiar with the appointments of political partisans in the various branches of the service, and you have seen the violation of all military usage, in elevating junior officers above senior officers in arms; you have seen every species of favoritism wagged upon the officers, many of whom have been compelled to leave the service.

I am sorry to say that the conduct of the army has been a leading principle of your life, and you cannot have forgotten their嘲笑 upon the West Point Academy; you are familiar with the appointments of political partisans in the various branches of the service, and you have seen the violation of all military usage, in elevating junior officers above senior officers in arms; you have seen every species of favoritism wagged upon the officers, many of whom have been compelled to leave the service.
