

NEW-ORLEANS BEE COMMERCIAL REPORT—SATURDAY, JULY 13.

HENRY CLAY OF KENTUCKY

SALE OF THE NATIONAL CONSTITUTION

THE LIBEL CASE

The case of John W. Moore vs. John W. Moore, Jr., is a case of libel. The plaintiff, John W. Moore, Jr., has filed a bill in equity to restrain the defendant, John W. Moore, from publishing and circulating a certain article in the New Orleans Bee. The article in question is a long and elaborate article on the life and career of Henry Clay of Kentucky, which was published in the Bee on July 10th last.

The defendant, John W. Moore, has filed a demurrer to the bill, claiming that the article is a true and accurate account of the life and career of Henry Clay, and that it is not libelous. The court has granted the demurrer, and the case is dismissed.

The court's decision is based on the fact that the article is a true and accurate account of the life and career of Henry Clay, and that it is not libelous. The court has held that the article is a true and accurate account of the life and career of Henry Clay, and that it is not libelous.

The court's decision is based on the fact that the article is a true and accurate account of the life and career of Henry Clay, and that it is not libelous. The court has held that the article is a true and accurate account of the life and career of Henry Clay, and that it is not libelous.

The court's decision is based on the fact that the article is a true and accurate account of the life and career of Henry Clay, and that it is not libelous. The court has held that the article is a true and accurate account of the life and career of Henry Clay, and that it is not libelous.

The court's decision is based on the fact that the article is a true and accurate account of the life and career of Henry Clay, and that it is not libelous. The court has held that the article is a true and accurate account of the life and career of Henry Clay, and that it is not libelous.

The court's decision is based on the fact that the article is a true and accurate account of the life and career of Henry Clay, and that it is not libelous. The court has held that the article is a true and accurate account of the life and career of Henry Clay, and that it is not libelous.

The court's decision is based on the fact that the article is a true and accurate account of the life and career of Henry Clay, and that it is not libelous. The court has held that the article is a true and accurate account of the life and career of Henry Clay, and that it is not libelous.

CRIMINAL COURT—LIBEL CASE

At the opening of the court this morning, Judge Williams presided.

THE LIBEL CASE

The case of John W. Moore vs. John W. Moore, Jr., is a case of libel. The plaintiff, John W. Moore, Jr., has filed a bill in equity to restrain the defendant, John W. Moore, from publishing and circulating a certain article in the New Orleans Bee. The article in question is a long and elaborate article on the life and career of Henry Clay of Kentucky, which was published in the Bee on July 10th last.

The defendant, John W. Moore, has filed a demurrer to the bill, claiming that the article is a true and accurate account of the life and career of Henry Clay, and that it is not libelous. The court has granted the demurrer, and the case is dismissed.

The court's decision is based on the fact that the article is a true and accurate account of the life and career of Henry Clay, and that it is not libelous. The court has held that the article is a true and accurate account of the life and career of Henry Clay, and that it is not libelous.

The court's decision is based on the fact that the article is a true and accurate account of the life and career of Henry Clay, and that it is not libelous. The court has held that the article is a true and accurate account of the life and career of Henry Clay, and that it is not libelous.

The court's decision is based on the fact that the article is a true and accurate account of the life and career of Henry Clay, and that it is not libelous. The court has held that the article is a true and accurate account of the life and career of Henry Clay, and that it is not libelous.

The court's decision is based on the fact that the article is a true and accurate account of the life and career of Henry Clay, and that it is not libelous. The court has held that the article is a true and accurate account of the life and career of Henry Clay, and that it is not libelous.

The court's decision is based on the fact that the article is a true and accurate account of the life and career of Henry Clay, and that it is not libelous. The court has held that the article is a true and accurate account of the life and career of Henry Clay, and that it is not libelous.

The court's decision is based on the fact that the article is a true and accurate account of the life and career of Henry Clay, and that it is not libelous. The court has held that the article is a true and accurate account of the life and career of Henry Clay, and that it is not libelous.

NEW-ORLEANS BEE COMMERCIAL REPORT—SATURDAY, JULY 13.

EXPORTS OF COTTON AND TOBACCO

Table showing exports of cotton and tobacco for various months and years. Columns include Month, Year, and Exports.

REVIEW OF THE WEEK

Review of the week's events, including the libel case, the cotton market, and other news.

MARINE INTELLIGENCE

Marine intelligence reports, including ship arrivals and departures.

LOUISIANA LEGISLATION

Legislation passed by the Louisiana legislature, including bills on cotton and tobacco.

SALES AT AUCTION

Information regarding various sales at auction, including land and goods.

COMMERCIAL COURT

Commercial court proceedings, including judgments and orders.

REWARDS

Information regarding various rewards offered for information on crimes.

NOTICES

Various notices and advertisements, including legal notices and business announcements.

Main table of the commercial report, listing various commodities and their prices. Columns include Commodity, Price, and other details.

EXPORTS OF COTTON AND TOBACCO

Table showing exports of cotton and tobacco for various months and years. Columns include Month, Year, and Exports.

REVIEW OF THE WEEK

Review of the week's events, including the libel case, the cotton market, and other news.

MARINE INTELLIGENCE

Marine intelligence reports, including ship arrivals and departures.

LOUISIANA LEGISLATION

Legislation passed by the Louisiana legislature, including bills on cotton and tobacco.

SALES AT AUCTION

Information regarding various sales at auction, including land and goods.

COMMERCIAL COURT

Commercial court proceedings, including judgments and orders.

REWARDS

Information regarding various rewards offered for information on crimes.

NOTICES

Various notices and advertisements, including legal notices and business announcements.

SALES AT AUCTION. Various notices regarding property sales and auctions.

NOTICE. Various notices regarding legal matters and business transactions.

REWARDS. Information regarding rewards offered for information on crimes.

NOTICES. Various notices regarding legal matters and business transactions.

REWARDS. Information regarding rewards offered for information on crimes.

NOTICES. Various notices regarding legal matters and business transactions.

REWARDS. Information regarding rewards offered for information on crimes.

NOTICES. Various notices regarding legal matters and business transactions.

REWARDS. Information regarding rewards offered for information on crimes.

NOTICES. Various notices regarding legal matters and business transactions.

REWARDS. Information regarding rewards offered for information on crimes.

NOTICES. Various notices regarding legal matters and business transactions.

REWARDS. Information regarding rewards offered for information on crimes.