NEW-ORLEANS BEE.

BY BULLITT MAGNE & CO.

[illegible]

[illegible] STATES.

HENRY CLAY,
OF KENTUCKY,
For President of the United States,
Subject to the decision of the National Convention

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT,
FRANCIS SCOTT KEY,
OF MARYLAND.

NEW-ORLEANS:
PUBLISHED EVERY MORNING (EXCEPT SUNDAY),
AT THE BEE BUILDING, CAMP STREET.
TERMS:
DAILY, $10 PER ANNUM; SEMI-WEEKLY, $6 PER ANNUM.

[illegible] AND PRETENDED DEMOCRACY.

[illegible] in this fast-moving world that of exclusive [illegible] by the partizans of the administration [illegible] and thunder. It is amusing to those who [illegible] object to the hypocritical affectation, to [illegible] the high-sounding words with which the locofocos [illegible] to proclaim the administration to be [illegible] democracy. Its claims [illegible] and professed democratic principles [illegible] as its pretensions to an [illegible] unwavering consistency and un[illegible] good. Let us see what is [illegible] Jefferson democracy and the [illegible] Benton Knownothing et al ourse [illegible] doctrines and conduct of [illegible] the support of every pe[illegible]

[illegible] contemplates an economical ex[illegible] public money. It aims at retrench[illegible] and seeks to measure the disburse[illegible] revenue by the actual and absolute [illegible] government. The democracy of Mr [illegible] the national expenses, and instead [illegible] enormous, lavishes $40 000 000. To [illegible] millions of this amount have been [illegible] the capacity of those faithful democrats [illegible] Reed Linn Harris and the rest [illegible] power of accounting for the in[illegible] 20 000 the gentlemanly [illegible] democratic we have nothing [illegible]

[illegible] Church the power of the [illegible] that of the people It [illegible] as leading to tyranny and cor[illegible] The democracy of Mr Van Buren strives [illegible] with the appliances of pow[illegible] hand for the purse and sword, and [illegible] restraint, but to [illegible] the will of the government. The [illegible] to the subtreasury, leave [illegible] to save from Blair, Ben [illegible] Executive is the servant, not [illegible] people. He ought to be the organ of [illegible] declares. In this to with our [illegible] president. Let the unceasing [illegible] of measures thus condemned and [illegible] the people, furnish a reply [illegible] assuming to fetter the independent [illegible] to prevent the government, despite the [illegible] opposition even of democratic legisla[illegible] much reply. Let the conduct of those devo[illegible] to Messrs Strange, Brown, Mouton [illegible] Young, and Sales, when instructed to op[illegible] sub-treasure. Furnish a reply. If this be [illegible] the ear not to declaration might be well con[illegible] behold the government administered under [illegible]

[illegible] not pursue an unsparing [illegible] for opinion's sake. The maxim [illegible] subscribe in such matters will not [illegible] servant by any partizan of Mr [illegible] to reference to the office holders [illegible] be honest" [illegible] shape a different pun [illegible] to have a thorough purging of [illegible] Van Buren mood. Will he afford an [illegible] [illegible] They declare, the high [illegible] no more will cannot answer [illegible] executive actively assembled to hold [illegible] [illegible] all who are unwilling to [illegible] to committee rooms, and abandon [illegible] attention to the purpose of rebal[illegible] [illegible] democracy does not aim to [illegible] establishing whole corrupt [illegible] [illegible] who are specially charged to [illegible] in the service of their mas[illegible] [illegible] organizing the great prince [illegible] sovereign, it rather seeks, on all [illegible] full, fair and distinct expression [illegible] that the rulers to whom power [illegible] are enabled to modify his [illegible] [illegible] acknowledged to be obedient to [illegible] [illegible] Democracy is therefore [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]