HENRY CLAY,
OF NEW YORK.
Editor of a National Convention of Anti-Slavery Friends.

TUESDAY MORNING, AUG. 18, 1850.

We are sorry to inform our readers that the important convention of the Anti-Slavery Friends has been brought by the Liverpool steamship to New York.

The meeting of the Board of Health requested a recess for a few days.

THE UNION BANK OF THE CITY.

On Sunday the 18th, the Union Bank of the City, in its meeting at the office of the manager, Mr. Aspinwall, Street, No. 10, will be open to the public from 10 to 12 o'clock.

We are sorry to learn that the Bank requested a recess for a few days.

THE AMERICAN COTTON SPECULATION.

Though the speculation in cotton, which sprung up some months ago in the United States, may be said to have reached its height, it is still far from over.

Admiral Bowditch was deeply interested in the speculations in cotton, and if any thing like a speculation should occur, he would expect a return of it.

The brothers of the speculators, more by their natural talents than any other, have shown an unequalled skill in the management of those who intend to profit by an artificial creation of value.

Judge J. C. Jones, one of the most prominent men in the South, has recently returned from Europe, and his report on the cotton market is very interesting.
