VEW ORLEANS THURSDAY MORNING, SEPT. 12, 1839. LOSSES AND GAINS The lare focus make the welkin ring with the of triumoh at the result of the late elections is e and Indiana—better than they themselve expected But have those partial successes settled the presidential question? In the Van Buren Synant we firmly seated on the throne, that the opponents of power must need a fold their arms despairingly and two their necks to the soke 1. We trust not. We hope we know there is a more resolute and uncor of an insufficient ercorrupt government, and that the whige must labor with unbated scal and alequies vigliance are they can expect to evercome the advantages with which the seried batallions of office holders and feed partiable extern upon the come t. The prospect of the whige are still far, but they have much a second the whige are still far, but they have much a second.

Or, giving the vote of South Carolina to Mr. Van Buren, the loss and gain will balance each other. Besides this, the whigh have made great game in some of the states. Thus in Georges, which elected a whole democratic delegation to the last congress, the whigh face now carried the entire ticket. In Virginia, in which the whigs have gained three members of congress, and have rendered parties at least doubtful in the legislature, where the administration was worst to have an undoubted axendancy. In Illinois, where they have Parties are now nearly equally divided. But this of itself is chering for the whigs. It could never be and during the two-terms of Gen Jackson's administration. For the first-time in twelve years, the whigh have now a fair prospect of succees. As itsen do their duty in the mext congress, and they will yet a standard preference or local reasons have induced to stray from the fold.

REMARKABLE.

It is a fast which considerations of personal preference or local reasons have induced to stray from the fold.

REMARKABLE.

It is a fast worth re weighering, that of the three candidates for the presidency. Mr. Clay is the early one who has been enabled to retain his own fixer. New York abandoned Mr. Van Busan a few months after the substitution, and in 1838 rendered signal testimory against his adammetration. Ohis voted for General Harrison in testic but fell into the arms of the last-form the presidency. Kentherky alone, through the scale work hundred yatin, and on the was arm seen been hundred free in height, and on the was arm seen fortunes have been so long identified with her. and General Harrison's adopted state lisowis and discards him, the locofocus on the or hand, attempt to prove that their leader is still list in order, while a portion of the whigs on the other, islot to establish the strength of the hero of Tappecano and the weakness of Mr. Clay.
