NOMINATION OF THE NATIONAL CONVENTION
FOR PRESIDENT,
WILLIAM H. HARRISON,
OF OHIO.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT,
JOHN TYLER,
OF VIRGINIA.

NEW-ORLEANS,
SATURDAY MORNING, FEB. 7, 1840.

"We call attention of our readers to a number of ships which have lately been sent to the port. They will be found on our first page, under the heading of 'Arrivals.'

"The last week and the late hour at which we have had no opportunity of the hour of report, the editor of the house of representatives of the 21st instant, has compelled us to postpone its publication to Monday."

"The Free American has issued the first number of a pamphlet, containing 'Notes of the character and opinions of Wm. Henry Harrison, the leading candidate for the Presidency.' The publication before us is in the possession of every library shop in the city. The author, a member of the administration party in regard to his great and patriotic services, he believes to Harrison and Senator Wharton, touching the duties of a chief magistrate of the United States; the second of his apparent service to office by the administration, from his services in the Mexican War, and the third, the other interesting and authentic evidence of his great military and distinguished civil services. These last editions make the judgment of the wing party."

"As a meeting of the wings of the parish of Jefferson, held last Sunday, at the Carrington Hotel, Messrs. McVean, V. Lanier, and R. C. Head, were appointed delegates to the State and District Convention, to be convened at New Orleans, on the 21st instant, to meet and adjourned until next evening to meet again to consider the publication of the patriotic and approved proceedings of the meeting. They were every thing that was due."

MEXICO.

"The news from Mexico is of a very melancholy character. At one time we have the Federals triumphant, at another, that the Confederates are all powerful. For the last few days we have had account of the growing strength and importance of forces of the Peons. The news from the 11th instant, of a battle of a force of a little over a thousand, to a much larger force of Mexican soldiers, which gives a very different aspect to Mexican affairs. It will be seen in power of the Confederates. His strongest
