FIREMENS CRLEBEATION.—This ficient and patrigitic popps of citizens celebrated their anniversary vesteriday, with uncommon pomp and slaplay. The different fire engine and hose companies turned out very strong - their engines and hose carriagorgaily decorated, with fings and intreasures flying, and appropriate emblesse and insignia of their upefu profession. The cotrige was avealed by the presence of the Mombers of the House of Representatives, and enlined by theree bands, composed of the best arises that this musical city can preduce. It was a gay and bleasant open thate, and must have been received with sentiments of grainful pride by those whose proposity have been preserved from the ravages of the communing element by the seal and intrepidity of the firemen.
