NEW-ORLEANS BEE COMMERCIAL REPORT — SATURDAY, NOV. 30,

HENRY CLAY,
OF KENTUCKY.

Subject to the decision of a National Convention.

SATURDAY MORNING, NOV. 30, 1839

FOR PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES

HENRY CLAY,
OF KENTUCKY.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT,

FRANCIS PORTER,
OF VIRGINIA.

The election of the Whig party to London simultaneously, on the 9th inst., has caused a sensation throughout, on the part of the partisans of the present administration, no serious accident has occurred, which could be attributed to the excitement of party feeling. The day passed off peacefully, and the result of the election was received with the most enthusiastic demonstrations of joy by the friends of the Whig party. It is the first time that the Whigs have succeeded in electing their candidate for the office of Lord Mayor of London, and the triumph is the more complete, as the Whig party has been in a minority in the City for many years past. The Whig candidate, Alderman Pirie, was elected by a majority of 1,500 votes over his opponent, Alderman Harmer, who was the candidate of the Radicals and Tories. The Whigs have also succeeded in electing their candidates for Sheriffs, by a majority of 1,000 votes. The Whig candidates for Aldermen have also been successful in a majority of the wards. The Whigs have also succeeded in electing their candidates for Common Council in a majority of the wards. The Whigs have also succeeded in electing their candidates for Common Council in a majority of the wards. The Whigs have also succeeded in electing their candidates for Common Council in a majority of the wards.

The following is the result of the election for Lord Mayor of London:

Pirie	1,500
Harmer	1,000

The following is the result of the election for Sheriffs of London:

Pirie	1,500
Harmer	1,000

The following is the result of the election for Aldermen of London:

Pirie	1,500
Harmer	1,000

The following is the result of the election for Common Council