MAYORALTY OF NEW ORLEANS—COUNCIL OF MUNICIPALITY NO. 1.

SITTING OF MONDAY, 13th July, 1840.

THE Council of Municipality No. 1, ordain as follows:

1. From and after the promulgation of this ordinance no pedlar or hawker of goods, merchandize, jewelry, boots, shoes, hats, caps, hardware, cutlery, groceries, ready made clothes, stationery, &c. shall be permitted to station in any public place, road, levee or side walk, within this municipality, under a penalty for each offence of three days imprisonment and a fine of ten dollars: and moreover for the faithful performance of this ordinance the constables of the second and vegetable markets are hereby held personally responsible, and shall be fined $25 for the first and second offence, and afterwards dismissed from office by the Mayor if they neglect their duty. The commissary of the meat market is obligated to inspect from St. Ann to St. Philip streets, and the commissary for the vegetable market, from St. Philip to Ursulins streets. The residue of this municipality devets upon the immediate inspection of the commissaries of the different wards or districts under the same conditions and penalties.

2. All keepers of taverns, coffee-houses, grog shops, and all others who be rqui to or permit pedlars to station in front of their premises, shall pay a fine of $20 for every such offence, and if repeated, their license shall be taken from them.

3. During the summer months, when oysters are not sold, the occupant of each oyster stand in the city shall be permitted to sell any spirituous liquor, under the penalty of $25 for every offence. They are also not permitted to sell other liquors than those of the manufacture.

4. The owner or owners of the ferry shall have a strong fence or enclosure made, with one small and one large gate in front of the landing, say 100 feet from the river, the fence extending on each side to the river—the gates to be shut and locked after the running of the boat shall have ceased.—The interior of this enclosure shall always be kept clean under the penalty of $10 for each and every offence.

5. The stands or pavillions used for the sale of ice cream, lemonade, &c. shall be removed from the Levee, and permission granted, if asked, to said occupants, to erect three small pavillions for that purpose under the trees of the public square, in front of the church, for which they will pay each $25 per month to this municipality, during the summer months.

6. From and after this date, no other stalls outside of the market shall be permitted, (such that only during market hours, say till ten o'clock, a. m.) but those that sell bacon, ham, pork, flour, corn, meal, fruit, rice, peas, beans, grain, turnips, cabbages, onions, potatoes and poultry. Whoever shall sell from the Levee in the vegetable market shall be kept free of market prelates; and after market hours the whole of the outside of the markets, and the space on the levee between them, shall be swept daily and kept clean; and the police officers are obligated to have this done under a penalty of $15 for each neglect of duty.

The foregoing resolutions shall be printed in French and English and published in several newspapers, and one hundred handbills shall be printed, and the Mayor requested to have them posted up in the most conspicuous places in the markets of this municipality, and every other public place, so that all persons interested may not pretend ignorance of their penal duties.

[Signed] PAUL BERTUS, Recorder.

Approved, July 14, 1840.

INSTITUTE FOR THE EDUCATION OF YOUNG LADIES—Formerly the plantation of Mr. Hurst, four miles from New Orleans.

MADAME MICHELLE has just opened an establishment at the above mentioned country seat, well known for its healthy and pleasant situation.

She will have the care of her pupils, as well in a moral as an intellectual point of view, all the care and attention, which can render her deserving of the confidence of those who are disposed to grant her that distinction.

Seconded, as she is, by the most able professors, and an English lady recommended and known under the most distinguished auspices, Madame Delarbelle hopes to obtain the end she has in view.

The terms for board are $250 yearly, payable in advance quarterly; music, dancing, singing, painting, Spanish and italian languages extra. j19
