Commercial.

NEW-ORLEANS, MONDAY EVENING, November 9, 1840.

Sugars received the Cotton steamer quite freely to-day, and operations to the extent of nearly 6,000 hdds. were effected at very full prices. The following parcels embrace the transactions alluded to—1,100 hdds Louisiana and Mississippi, 3½c—900 do. at 3¾c—600 do. at 3¾—754 do. at 3¾—700 do. at 3¾—500 do. at 3¾—300 do. at 3¾—and 1,700 Western Districts, at 6c.

LIVERPOOL CLASSIFICATIONS.

Louisiana and Mississippi.	Tennessee and Ark.
Fair	Ordinary
Good Ordinary	Middling
Low Middling	Middling Fair
Middling	Fair
Good Middling	Good Fair
Good and fine	Fine

There was a brisk demand to-day for SUGAR, and 2000 hhds were disposed of for export, from the Levee, at 3¾c. We notice further sales of 150 hhds at private quotation, at 5¼c. Our extreme quotations are 3¾ @ 6¼c. MOLASSES is dull, and prices declining—we heard of a sale of about 150 barrels, at 22½c.

The FLOUR market remains in an uncertain state, and we are of opinion that present rates can not be much longer maintained. We know of orders to the extent of 40,000 barrels, limited at $4 @ $4 25, mostly at the former price; at the present moment there is no demand for export. We quote Cincinnati superfine, $4 00¼ a $4 75.

The transactions in PROVISIONS are very limited, and purchasers are confined to small lots for ship and plantation stores. Pork, Mess, $19—Prime, $16. Bacon, Sides, 9 a 9½c—Shoulders, 7 a 7½c. Lard, prime Leaf, 13 a 13½c.

EXCHANGE on New-York, at 50 ds, is rather firmer to-day, and good signatures are readily negotiated at par. Sterling remains as quoted yesterday, at 9½ @ 9¾ per cent. prem. ($1 80 a $4 83½ per £1 sterling.) France, at 5@12½.

FREIGHTS are drooping, and shippers do not feel disposed to pay the rates hitherto current. To Havre, a ship was taken up to-day at 1½c, which is a decline. We have not heard of anything under 4 l. to Liverpool.

☞ The mail failed yesterday beyond Charleston.

LOUISIANA ELECTIONS.
WHIG MAJORITY UP TO DATE:
3,636.

Our readers, by glancing at the following table, can form a tolerably accurate opinion of the result of the election in this state. In July last the state polled 16,169, of which the whig candidates received 9,103, the locofoco candidates 7,047, and scattering 19.—Showing a majority in favor of the whigs, of 2,056.

* The returns from Madison are included, in the official statement, in those from the county of Concordia, composed of the parishes of Concordia, Carroll and Madison. The gain in Madison, for the whigs, is 40.

THE ELECTIONS.

The returns from St. Landry, St. Martins, Lafayette, Catahoula and Caldwell, were received per steamer Rudolph. They appear to be authentic, and may no doubt be relied upon. From Concordia there are two reports—one making the whig majority (B—the other, 160. The latter is probable, but as the reports are conflicting, we have not entered them on our tabular statement.

[CORRESPONDENCE OF THE BEE.]

OLD MISSISSIPPI AWAKE!!!

Sound the glad song o'er every far sea,
The people have triumph'd their country is free!

The following list we obtained from a gentleman who arrived this morning from Jackson, the authority is undoubted, and upon this expose we feel safe in stating that the pledge given you at Baton Rouge is redeemed. Mississippi has shaken off the shackles of the spoilsmen by a majority of from 1500 to 3000.

Yours, R. P.

Our above correspondent furnishes the official returns of 23 counties, showing an immense gain for the whigs, and with him, we do not hesitate in saying th at the state has gone for HARRISON by a majority th at will prove to our rulers at Washington that the will of the people is supreme.

OHIO.

The steamboat Atalanta, which left Cincinnati one day after the Queen of the West, reports that in 28 counties Gen'l HARRISON had gained three thousand votes over the majority given to CORWIN in the same counties.

KENTUCKY.

In Louisville the whig majority the first day was 941. It was supposed it would attain 1500.

ALL HAIL GEORGIA!

Few as the returns are from this State, they are enough to show that she has gone for HARRISON by a decided majority. If there is one thing in these triumphs more pleasing than another, it is to behold the Sovereign gallantly sustaining the statesman that was first to fall in her cause:

THE THIRD DISTRICT.

A perfect avalanche of Whig victories has followed the contest in the glorious THIRD DISTRICT. We have stormed the strongest fortresses of locofocism. We have captured Assyrelles, redeemed Rapides, taken Lafayette by assault, wrested Catahoula from the grips of Van Burenism, almost carried Caldwell, and run the locofocos to the eyelashes in Carroll. Honor and praise to the THIRD DISTRICT, she has nobly done her duty, and merits the eternal thanks of every true republican.

THE AMERICAN THEATRE opens this evening, with the beautiful play of the "Honey Moon," and other entertainments appropriate to the occasion. Under the management of Messrs. LUDLOW & SMITH, this establishment will in all probability succeed. Both of those gentlemen are favorably known to the dramatic world, and would be great acquisitions to any theatrical corps. Mr. Ludlow is an old stager, and among our earliest recollections of the drama are his masterly delineations of such characters as that in which he appears this evening. A number of years have elapsed since we have seen this play; but we hazard nothing in saying that the part of "Duke Aranza" will be well performed this evening.

Of Mr. Smith's talents report speaks favorable; and a number of performers, whose acquirements are known to the New-Orleans audience, are attached to the establishment. Among them are Mr. and Mrs. Farren, both clever performers and well known here.

NEWMAN'S THEATRE.—While we acknowledge that as a performance, this new piece was very well cast, and went off with ensemble, we do pronounce it, as a play, a most miserable affair—a patched up piece of incongruities, and one resembling the exquisite romance of Ivanhoe in little else than its name. Jane Shore, the heroine of the work, the second act touches within the vicinity of a rifle mad ess through the whole of the first, and the whole of the second time, and there all attempts at a faithful delineation of the character, distorts the development, it ceases altogether, and winds up in the most unsatisfactory and silly manner possible. We cannot but regret the gifted Duprez has cast part of his talents in the support of such an unworthy piece, which other managers, who offer many inducements, would not accept. Change of shreds and tatters out of his professional wardrobe would be an important consideration in the absence of the good one.

The Right Hon. Thomas Spring Rice, M. P. for the county of Limerick, has been appointed Chancellor of the Exchequer, in the room of Mr. Francis Baring, who has been created a peer by the title of Baron Ashburton.

The Right Hon. Edward Geoffrey Stanley, M. P. for Lynn, has been appointed Secretary for the Colonies, in the room of Lord John Russell, who has been appointed Secretary for War and the Colonies.

A FEW WORD OF LAST CARDS.

The public have, doubtless, not forgotten the stupendous forgery perpetrated on the eve of the late Gen'l Election. It may be remembered that the supposed extra of the Emancipator, was directed to the office of the Bee, which from a locofoco print had been recently transmuted to a neutral paper, under new auspices. The gentlemanly editors of this neutral journal had the kindness to communicate the forgery to the editors of the Bee, and we were thus enabled to anticipate the Van Buren papers in the publication, to fasten at once the charge of slander and falsehood upon the infamous device, and to obviate whatever inauspicious influence it might otherwise have exerted on the prospects of the whigs.

Knowing these facts as the whigs of Orleans do know, our readers may conjecture our astonishment, when casually stumbling upon an article in the Mobile Register of last week, we found this most despicable and impudent tory trick gravely imputed to the whigs of Orleans. Yes, fellow-whigs, the locofoco organ at Mobile has the effrontery to foist upon you the paternity of this vile production; to brand you as the fabricators of this nefarious scheme; to accuse you of having manufactured it and the whig papers of having published it, for the purpose of casting odium upon the administration. The impudence and shallowness of this accusation have literally astounded us.

The most singular part of the article in the Register is the reasons alledged by that journal in corroboration of its views. It seems that not a single "democratic" paper in the north noticed the forgery—proof conclusive, in the opinion of the Register man of its being fabricated. Now, it seems to us, that the only thing proved by this fact is, that the supposed extra is a forgery. It was not employed at the north, because it could not injure Gen'l. HARRISON there. Its influence was directed to the south because here Gen'l. HARRISON's success might be impaired by such a charge. That neither the democratic nor whig papers of the north noticed the forgery, stamps it to infallibly as such, but why their silence proves it to have emanated from New Orleans, passes our logic.

Again, the Register admits that the Extra is published on type resembling that of the Globe—mark the acknowledgement. Any one with ordinary powers of reasoning would thence conclude that it was the Globe type. But our logician of the Register considers this circumstance corroborative testimony in favor of his impudent charge, because, says he, any one acquainted with the printer's business, knows how easily the Globe type may be imitated.

But to display the argument of the Register in all its absurdity, we have only to say that the publication of such a projection in this city, was in no possible way calculated to benefit the Whigs. Such is the execrable and susceptible character of our population, that a fabrication of the kind referred to, instead of casting odium upon the Administration, would, unless promptly and effectually counteracted, most assuredly injure the whigs. The baseness of the imputation is in consonance with the mind that directs the Mobile Register, and the recklessness of the party managers at Washington. The latter would not hesitate an instant at forgery, if they imagined it would subserve their purposes. The former would not scruple to endorse it, if he believed he could help to bear up a sinking Administration.

We say the Van Buren leaders would not hesitate at forgery—we may add they have already been guilty of the foul crime. What will the Register man say to the almost simultaneous appearance of the forged Extra of the Emancipator in New Orleans and Georgia? How does this marked coincidence jump with his notion of its originating in this city? How comes it that the Georgia Argus, a rabid Van Buren paper, publishes in Columbus, came out with it on the Thursday preceding the contest in that state, and that the editor, on failing to receive confirmation of the charges it contained, had the redeeming grace to pronounce it a forgery! How came the Augusta papers to receive copies of the same extra? How was it that the Charleston papers were likewise supplied, and that more honorable than many of their compeers, they at once pronounced such charges false, and dishonorable to the party that fabricated them? How is it that the extra also found its way to Kentucky? Do these pregnant facts sustain the vile calumny with which the Register has attempted to stain the reputation of the whigs of Orleans—a party, as our very adversaries will allow utterly incapable of conceiving so infamous a design. Do they not rather establish conclusively the position originally assumed by this paper, that the suppositious correspondence between General HARRISON and a committee of abolitionists headed by ARTHUR TAPPAN, was a forgery which emanated from the office of the Washington Globe?

The Charleston Mercury, a warm administration paper, concludes some observations upon the forged extra of the Emancipator, with the following just rebuke:—

"On consideration, we feel bound to pronounce this Extra a forgery, and to inform the man, whoever he is, that took the trouble to devise, print and send it to us, that we think him a very great scoundrel for his pains."

☞ The population of Richmond county, Ga., is 11,968 souls.

The Northern Mail due yesterday, was only from Weldon, N. C.

Passengers brought on the New York Herald of Friday, and the Baltimore Republican of Saturday, but we find nothing in them of important interest.

The only information that could be given as the result of the election in Pennsylvania, was, that the city of Philadelphia proper, had gone for the Whigs, but the majority was not known.

Charleston Courier of the 3rd inst.

THREE WHITE MEN TAKEN.

The Apalachicola Gazette of the 24th ult. states, that a few days since in Middle Florida, three white men were taken on suspicion of aiding the Indians, in their depredations on the lives and property of our citizens. It seems a company of men were on a scout in search of Indians, accompanied by several of the Seminole chiefs, who had been friendly to the Government of these men, which at length induced the commanding officer to have them arrested, and on examination found they had scarcely freed themselves from the paint with which they had been painted to prevent detection. They also found on still closer examination, other proofs of their connexion with the Indians. This is, we believe, the first arrest ever made of white men for a connexion with the Ind, and is a convincing proof of the utility of the dogs.

FIFTEEN DAYS LATER FROM CHINA.
New Year, Oct. 30.

MOVEMENTS OF THE ENGLISH AND CELESTIALS—CANTON NOT YET BATTERED DOWN.—The "Delhi," captain Crocker, arrived yesterday from China. She sailed from Whampoa on the 3d of last June, and passed Anjier on the 5th of the same month with the "Rose" in company.

It appears from our letters and papers that there had been no particular change in the affairs between the smooth faced Chinese and British. Neither Canton nor the forts at Bocca Tigris had been battered down nor touched, and Pekin was safe. Neither had the English squadron arrived off Macao. So the intelligence received a week ago by the "Acadia," is incorrect.

Captain Crocker informs us that he was in Canton on the 3d June, and obtained the following list of the British fleet. It was hourly expected to arrive there. He states also, that on the 7th of June, when about two hundred miles from Macao, he saw a steamer standing towards Canton, which he took to be one of the expedition. In the annexed list the names of two steam frigates are given. That seem was unquestionably one of them. He saw nothing of the other vessels of war. But as they were every day expected at Macao, and as the steamer seen was no doubt one of the fleet, the Anson Courser, it is fair to suppose that the entire squadron arrived in the Chinese seas a few days after the Delhi left. The next news will therefore be important, and looked for with much anxiety.

There were several American merchant vessels loading at Canton. Some of them partly loaded with nothing instead of teas. The "Lucinda," had loaded, and was to visit the English ships for the purpose of loading of her cargo. There had been no change in the price of teas at Canton.

The Boston Times states that in the Municipal Court of that city, on Friday last, seven journeymen bookbinders were convicted on the indictment, upon which they had for several days been on trial, which indictment charged them unlawfully with a conspiracy to injure each other persons, and the charge was founded on fact, that they have formed an association, the object of which is to fix certain rates of wages for particular kinds of work, and to compel the members of the association to adhere to those rates; while by other associations journeymen are compelled to become members, in order to get employment, or by a refusal of the members to work for the employers who refuse to submit.
