INDIAN'S PANACEA.

FOR the cure of scrofula or king's evil, incipient consumption, syphilitic and mercurial diseases, particularly ulcers and painful affections of the bones, inveterate throat and nostrils, ulcers of every description, rheumatism, scirrhus of the glands, fever sores and internal abscesses, fistulas, head-ach, scurvy, bites, chronic sore eyes, erysipelas, carbuncles, diseases, chronic catarrh and headache from partial or entire pain in the stomach and dyspepsia, proceeding from vitiation, affections of the liver, chronic inflammation of the kidneys and general debility, caused by a lapse of constitutional vigor, or the effects of the skin, efficacious in removing those constitutions which have been broken down by injudicious treatment or juvenile irregularities. In a word in every form, it is recommended to all diseases which arise from impurities of the blood, or vitiation of the humors, of whatever form or kind.

The superior virtues of this valuable medicine acquired his knowledge of its ingredients from a long residence among the aborigines of this country, and it is a selection from the most valuable medicinal and curative herbs of the forest. It is offered to the public by the proprietor, with the most confidence that he is placing within their reach a remedy capable of relieving many of his afflicted fellow-beings, who are suffering under the various chronic and obstinate complaints to which it is applicable. To such it will prove the means, in many cases, the only means of relieving their sufferings, and restoring them once more to health and happiness. This is not offered as a common remedy, that may perhaps be in one instance only good when no other is in use, but one which is capable of saving life in many desperate cases, when all the usual remedies fail. This it has in numerous instances, and this is the reputation it has obtained wherever it has been introduced.

This medicine has been found highly useful in many consumptive cases where it was applied, and it has been used with wonderful success as a spring and fall purifier, by those who are subject to various complaints, and whose constitutions require occasional purifying. Where a diet drink is necessary this Panacea, taken in usual doses, will answer all its purposes in a less time, at less expense and in a far more agreeable manner than the common diet drink.

The following certificate, out of hundreds similar which might be produced, is given to show the effect of the Indian Panacea, in the various complaints therein mentioned, and also to exhibit in the most satisfactory manner its superiority over all other similar preparations:

Cure of Ulcerated Throat, Neutrals, &c.

Charleston, Jan. 20, 1838—This may certify that I was afflicted with a scrofulous disease for several years, during which time I employed several eminent physicians, both in Philadelphia and Charleston, and also took several bottles of Swain's Panacea, but all without permanent benefit. My throat, nose and mouth was taken with an ulcerated throat which soon became so severe as to prohibit my taking nourishment, and to sustain life, I continued in this situation several days, and was reduced to the last extremity, when I was induced with absolute and unavoidable starvation, when, as a last resort, I had recourse to the Indian's Panacea, and found relief from the immediate relief, recovered so rapidly that in four weeks I found myself quite well, as I have remained ever since.

COUGH REMEDY—Pectoral Paste of Degnestain, Drug Gist of Paris.—Of all the remedies now known for the cure of coughs, none has ever obtained so much celebrity as the Pectoral Paste, of which that of the above named gentleman by its usage in the affections of the lungs and mucous membrane, is rendered invaluable.

This paste has the power of calming irritations of the lungs immediately, facilitates the expectoration, and stops, by degrees, the cough. It is one of the best remedies in colds, catarrhs, &c., which yield immediately to its effects. Physicians of the best standing in Paris have tested its effects in many cases, and have pronounced its use as one of all lung affections, and causes of consumption as the best remedy now known.

The above remedy can be obtained at M. Martin's, Drug Store, No. 171, Chartres st.
