Mr. BODISCO'S ADDRESS.

[TRANSLATION.]

Mr. President—The United States having been suddenly depayed of it supreme head, the constitution has invested you with the Chief Magistracy of the Union.

The Diplomafte Corps has the honor to appear before you, Mr. President, for the purpose of expressing through me, its organ, its concern in the assienceholy event which has so unexpectedly removed General Harrison from the hopes of the American people. The Diplomatic corps hasters also to offer upits vows. Mr. President, that your Administration may be distinguished by the ministence of all the resisting frendly relations, and by granner of all the resisting frendly relations, and by manner of all the resisting frendly relations, and by manner of all the careful printing of the United States.

The Diplomited States when the granner of the property of the United States when the United States when the property of the United States when the United States when the United States when the United States when the United States when
