NEW-ORLEANS HERALD.

OFFICIAL NEWSPAPER
BY GUY LAFAYETTE & CO.
FOR THE RAILROADS, CANALS,
SHIPS, AND OTHER TRADE.

FOR GOVERNOR
HENRY JOHNSON.

THURSDAY MORNING, AUGUST 19, 1841.

THE STATE HOUSE.

We have understood from good authority, that since the appointment of the Hon. Thomas G. Morris, as Collector of the Customs for the Port of Orleans, but a solitary removal has been made. This extreme leniency to the fact of the administration's greatest disqualification in the community. If we excepted against the principles laid down by Washington, leading to the adoption of the resolution to which he referred, and will tell the question. In this meanwhile, we hope to inform our readers all that we can gather in relation to this important subject.
