BOARD OF PUBLIC WORKS.
New Orleans, May 11th 1841.

THE undersigned is prepared to contract for the cutting of a channel through the Rapids of Red River, above the town of Alexandria; provided the same can be done in accordance with a plan and estimate made by the regular Civil Engineer, of the State of Louisiana, and also with an appropriation made for that purpose by the Legislature of the State—all of which can be seen at the office of the Board in the city of New Orleans, on application to F. Hennessy, Secretary, No. 2 Old Levee street.

The person or persons contracting to do the work will be required to give a bond with good and sufficient security in a sum of at least the full amount of the contract, and to stipulate that one third of the value of the work as it progresses be retained by the Board, to secure a faithful execution of the contract. It is confidently believed that eight or nine thousand men can be collected together, at short notice, and be disposed to enter into a contract for work of the character here proposed to be done.

THOS. W. GINN,
President of the Board of Public Works.

☞ The Red River Whig, D. Avis, editor, will please publish the above twice a week for two months, and forward his bill to the Board of Public Works.

GALT HOUSE.

Cincinnati, corner Main and Sixth streets

THE location of this house being central built way between the river and canal, and is the highest street upon Main street, and convenient to all kinds of business, together with the late additions and improvements make it now the most desirable hotel in the city for merchants and travellers in general. Rare not surpassed by any hotel in the city—comfortable, entitled to the name. Pushing grateful for past favors, I hope by all my attentions to the comfort of all who may call to merit a continuance of public favor so liberally bestowed.

N. B.—A brick stable is attached to the house, and good hostlers in attendance.

Baggage taken to and from the river and canal free of charge when called for.

GUILD'S PATENT COOKING STOVES CALLED "QUEEN OF THE WEST"

THE undersigned agent for the sale of this article for the first time introduced to the notice of the New Orleans public, begs leave respectfully to solicit public attention thereto.

He refers to the subjoined flattering testimony as to its economy, neatness and general utility.

We, the undersigned, have used for some time Guild's Patent Cooking Stove, called the Queen of the West, and do not hesitate to give our unqualified testimony in its favor. For neatness, convenience, economy and general usefulness, we think it unsurpassed by any stove we have seen, or has come under our notice. It seems to have surmounted one great desideratum not heretofore attained—the most capacious, and at the same time best heated and easily and quickly managed oven—the bottom of which is so constructed as to bring the heat immediately in contact with the bottom of the pan, and at the same time heated uniformly and equally on every side—and the fire being placed at the top when bringe
