FOR GOVERNOR
HENRY JOHNSON.

NEW-ORLEANS:
WEDNESDAY MORNING, NOV. 10, 1841.

Mail arrived yesterday at an early hour. The is before it did not, arrive at all. We chronicle there ...ise that the administration may be kept advised of the ...anner in which the contract is executed in this quarter. If there be we have not had many complaints to make, but ...ail failures are becoming rather too frequent.

THE MADISONIAN AND THE BEE.

We thought as much. The Madisonian refuses to ...ply to our question whether Mr. TYLER intends ...ning for re-election. That paper labors through a ...mn of twaddle, in which it attempts to pervert ...r remarks, but it will not give a plain and categorical ...sponse. The sum total of the Madisonian's article ...y be stated in a few lines. The Bee calls on Mr. ...LER's organ to say whether its patron intends ...running for a second term. A reply in the negative ...ld do much to place him rectus in curia with the ...gs, by proving that his bank vetoes arose from ...cal error, and were not founded on the base hope ...curing bo-deo support at the next presidential ...on. At the same time that the Bee calls for a ...r answer, it intimates a belief that Mr TYLER ...s off ring for re-election. Con-quently, ...the aegis of the Madisonian, the query is imper-...and should be disregarded—a most satisfactory ...n of its sipling from the dilemma to which our ques-...n had driven us, have reduced this worthy mouth-...ce of a worthy master.

To show the utter want of principle and fairness in the Madisonian, we have only to state that because we remarked that Mr. TYLER's adhesion to the one ...e principle would go far towards convincing the ...gs that his intentions are honest; that journal in-...ges that his intentions are honest; that journal in-...ges that his intentions are honest; that journal in-...ges
