NEW-ORLEANS BEE

OFFICIAL JOURNAL OF THE STATE. BY BULLITT, MADGE & CO.

FOR GOVERNOR HENRY JOHNSON. FRIDAY MORNING, DEC. 10, 1864.

When this paper first took ground in open opposition to President Tyler's conduct, and branded him with the epithet of political traitor, there were some very good whigs who thought we had acted with unbecoming intemperance...

It is not to be denied that the whigs of the South have been the victims of a cruel and unprovoked assault. The whigs of the North have been the victims of a cruel and unprovoked assault...

Now what will the Boston whigs, the New York whigs, and other whigs, which have so often been the victims of a cruel and unprovoked assault, do to save the honor and glory of their party...

There is quite a growing disposition among the whigs of the South to desert the Union. This disposition is based upon a false and dangerous theory...
