BANKRUPT LAW.

Ma. Fanas o, a legal gentieman of this city, has now in press a pamplet containing copieus and accurate explanations of the different provisions of the Bankrupt Law.—
He has grouped the registrians of the till into different classes, so as to facilitate its ready comprehension by who say anismitiar with the mysteries of legislation. His work is divided into five chapters: 1st. The bankrupt's declaration; 2st. Compets at court form of proceedings, M. Administration and liquidation; 4th. The discharge of the bankrupt's Abt. Expenses.

The pamphiet will likewise contain the English text of the law and a literal translation in French.

(C)—We have examined some specimens of artificial texth manufactured by Dr. Housterr, a dentiat who has lately arrived in this city. They resemble natural texth so perfectly that nothing but an exceedingly close animalisin can detect the difference. Dr. Houghpt we are told exhibits remarkable skill and mechanical large nursely is his operations. As a dentiat his reputation in trey high. A splendid silver picher was presented him by a gentleman of Natchex for a very difficult and delicate operation performed by the Dr. Houghpt's residence in No. 144 Customhouse.

THE I THEIR COMPANY, we learn, have engaged the
