NEW ORLEANS TRI-

EDITED BY BULLITT, MAGNE & CO.

FOR GOVERNOR,

HENRY JOHNSON,

OF WEST FELICIANA.

NEW ORLEANS:

THURSDAY MORNING, FEB'Y. 26, 1846.

THE CRISIS.

We would again urge upon the Legislature the necessity of taking some steps, and that, too, without delay, to arrest the thick coming evils that are gathering above and about us. The most stubborn spirit, we would think, might be softened by the calamities that have already overtaken our citizens, and the fearful storm is now lowering over us, that threatens to burst upon us with the utmost violence, before the present session of the Legislature shall have terminated.

One of the consequences of the Bank Bill will be to exhaust about two millions of the means of the weaker class of our fellow citizens, and the effect of this is, the bursting of some hundreds of the debtors, who
