

NEW-ORLEANS BEE.

BY W. L. MAGNÉ & CO.
PUBLISHED EVERY FRIDAY.
OFFICE: 100 N. PULCHER STREET.

FOR PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES. HENRY CLAY. (Aspirant for the Election of the American People.)

FOR VICE PRESIDENT.
WINFIELD SCOTT.
SATURDAY MORNING, SEPT. 24, 1842.

MR. ROBERTS' LETTER.
The following is a translation of the contents of a letter which has been published in the Standard, and which we think it well to give to our readers. It is a letter from Mr. Roberts to Mr. Clayton, and is a very interesting one, as it contains a full account of the proceedings of the Convention, and of the opinions of the members of the Convention, and of the views of the people of the State on the subject of the Convention.

COMMERCIAL REVIEW.
We are indebted to the attention of the editors for a copy of the July number of the "Southern Quarterly." Its contents are very interesting, and we think it well to give to our readers a short summary of its contents. The article on "The Cotton Trade" is particularly interesting, and we think it well to give to our readers a short summary of its contents.

FROM JAMAICA.
By the arrival of the Fancy, from Kingston, at Pensacola, we have received a few papers from Jamaica, which contain some interesting news from that island. The principal news is that the government of Jamaica is planning to send a large party of men to settle on the island of Cuba.

DESTRUCTION OF THE OLD CAMP STREET THEATRE.
About 5 o'clock yesterday morning a fire broke out in a small chamber adjoining the theatre. The fire spread rapidly, and in a few minutes the theatre was in flames. The flames were extinguished, but the building was completely destroyed.

THE GREAT GULF ADVISOR.
The cotton trade has been materially affected by the unusual proportion of consequence of the late heavy storm of wind and rain. The crops have been materially injured, and the price of cotton has fallen.
