FOREIGN MARKETS.

LONDON, JANUARY 14.—Sugar. The market continues dull, and declining. Every description of Sugar is 6s. per cwt. lower than at the close of last week. The market has been glutted with the arrivals of the last few days, and the holders, both East and West India Sugars manifest their anxiety to realize. A small lot of Mauritius Sugar sold at 44s. 6d. for ordinary qualities. No other sales have been effected, but the holders of fine and fine yellow Sugars maintain their prices. Bengal Sugars are also dull, and 1s. per cwt. lower. Refined goods are 2s. 6d. lower. Molasses are dull, and 1s. per cwt. lower. Rum is 1d. per gallon lower. Coffee is dull, and 1s. per cwt. lower. Cotton is dull, and 1-16d. lower.
