AGENT FOR THE AMERICAN SHIRT MANUFACTORY.

THE subscribers are agents for the above factory. These pins are far superior to ordinary imported pins—the heads are fine at the points of which are sharp, the body being in all—that is, of one piece with the shank—can never drop out from one of the wire of which they are made is also very soft and elastic. They received the highest premium, gold medal, at the fair of the American Institute of the city of New York, in October, 1845. Dealers can be supplied with the above pins at the manufacturers prices.

THE LIFE AND SPEECHES OF THE HON. HENRY CLAY.

THE subscriber solicits the aprobation and patronage of Mr. Clay's friends in Louisiana to this undertaking. The work will be published in two large octavo volumes, by Messrs. Robert P. Bixley & Co, No. 3 Park Row, New York, in two styles, the former of more than two pages thick. The embellishments, splendidly executed on steel, will consist of a full length likeness of Mr. Clay; a view of the Ashland dwelling, where he resides; the Observatory, Virginia; another of Ashland, his beautiful residence in Lexington, Ky.; and the Monument erected on the Cumberland Road, near Wheeling, Virginia.

The General Committee of Whig Young Men of the city of New York, passed the following resolution:

Broadway House, July 23, 1842.

In General Committee of Democratic Whig Young Men, Resolved, That the publication proposed in the Life and Speeches of HENRY CLAY, by Daniel Mallory, of New York, entitled to our approbation and patronage, as that distinguished Statesman, is cordially commended by this Committee to the favor of their Democratic Whig brethren throughout the Union.
