John Kellar and Thomas Williams vs. Thomas Powell, Receiver, &c., in the cases of Kellar vs. Williams and Williams vs. Kellar.

SEEING an advertisement in your paper under date of ... 29th inst., headed as at case, signed A. Sidney Lewis, Sheriff of the District Court, I suppose, I, Sidney Lewis, ... as one of the attorneys of those concerned, and for the satisfaction of the public generally, to make some explanation of this matter, and avoid doubt, if not misapprehension.

The note of Nathaniel Lewis, dated 15th November, 1841, for $941 75 was paid to me on the 22d April, 1842, and I was neglected to take the note up. The note of James H. Brown, dated 5th January, 1840, for $271 80. Brown holds my receipt for Texas money left with me to be sold to pay said note, which has been long since done.

The note of Wm. H. Martin, dated 19th October, 1841, for $100, was paid by Mr. Martin 21st February, 1842, and he neglected to take the note up.

Nathaniel Lewis' receipt for various claims vs. Pinkney Caldwell, there is only one due of $300.

John Dinsmore's receipt for a transfer of his judgment against James Winter, side of Texas, for $1041 [illegible] the transfer was made to Mr. Dinsmore in part pay ment of [illegible] borrowed him.

The receipt of Wm T Hall, on a note of date of [illegible], said note has not been paid and Hall is bound for the payment.

The two promissory notes of John Sutherland, one for $120 50, the other for $704, and the two drafts of same for, in favor of Bramble & Bramble, all of which has been settled, except a very small balance. Mr. Sutherland has his account rendered by me and chooses to act [illegible] to sue, and resolved on the said account for what money paid me and the mortgages, &c. canceled. Mr. Sutherland has left the notes, drafts, &c. in my desk, and assisted [illegible] for them; he is now a prisoner in Mexico and perhaps dead.

The two separate claims upon the Mexican Government for indemnity, &c. were disposed of by me on the 24 December, 1842, and the determining [illegible] of said transfer. I now have no interest. THOMAS POWELL, ... New Orleans, May 31st, 1843. may 31—3t
