FOR PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES,
HENRY CLAY.
FOR CONGRESS—FIRST DISTRICT:
GEORGE K. ROGERS.
SECOND DISTRICT:
EDWARD D. WHITE.
REPRESENTATIVES—STATE LEGISLATURE
FELIX LABATUT
NEW-ORLEANS
WEDNESDAY MORNING, JUNE 28, 1843.
FOR ALDERMAN OF THE FIRST WARD,
GUSTAVE CRUZAT.

WHIG MEETING!—SECOND MUNICIPALITY!!

A meeting of the Whigs of the Second Municipality will be held WEDNESDAY EVENING, 28th instant, at BANKS' ARCADE, at half past seven o'clock, P. M. The Whigs of the other Municipalities are respectfully invited to attend.—Several popular speakers will address the meeting.

By order of the Executive Committee:
L. MATHEWS, Chairman.
N. A. VIENNE, Secretary.

BE OF GOOD CHEER!

We can assure our friends of the First District, that the indications of the triumphant election of Geo. K. Rogers, are of the most encouraging character. The whig spirit is becoming thoroughly aroused and in every direction we observe omens of success. We have a candidate whose public and private history challenges the severest criticism: a man of unblemished character and of approved patriotism. Qualities such as these deserve the approbation and confidence of good men, and we feel confident they will not fail to win the support of the voters of the district.

It is in no spirit of bragging that we say to our friends that, if the city does but its duty; if the whigs of the 1st and 2nd Municipalities will turn out as they should, victory will perch on our banners. This we feel assured they will do. Subtly the Whigs of New Orleans, whose very doors, almost, the polls are open, will not neglect the most important franchise a freeman can enjoy, whilst our friends in the country are exerting themselves so manfully in the contest. We have a good cause and an upright and honorable candidate. It would be unpardonable in any one to remain inactive and suffer the city to be carried by default, when there are so many motives to call forth the energies of every lover of his country and so vast a stake in the impending contest.

We again say to our city friends be of good cheer. The prospect for us is bright and becoming brighter every day as the hour of trial approaches. Let us then all prepare for action. Let our man turn aside from bigotry, and we will obtain a victory of which we may be proud indeed—one that will animate and encourage our friends in other sections of the Union, and be the harbinger of yet greater and more brilliant achievements.

PARTY AGREEMENT.

We publish to-day an agreement entered into by committees appointed by the respective parties, for the purpose of conducting the approaching election upon the most fair and honorable principles. This agreement has been ratified by the candidates themselves, both for the Legislature and Congress, and we hope and believe it will be complied with on the part of their friends. For ourselves we can assert most positively that we do not know of a single measure in contemplation, by the whig party to evade any one of the provisions of the agreement, and we rely upon the firmness of the whole party that they have determined to adhere to it, [illegible] contrary to the articles of agreement.

[illegible] party, every [illegible] in some degree of excitement, that [illegible] with [illegible] conduct with quiet, order and good feeling, on the part of all. [illegible] the determination of the whole democracy of the district, to which the defeated candidates and the worsted party should submit with becoming resignation. We say to our democratic friends, beat us fairly and we will drink to the success of your candidates and we tell them in turn that we will beat them fairly, or not at all. A fair field and no favor is the motto of all honorable warfare, and this is exactly what is provided for in the agreement. The party that rise up late at night and gets up earliest in the morning will succeed. In no boasting vein, we tell our democratic friends that the "good old 200 or 300 votes" does not proclaim from the letters of the Catholic Standard of the day or an hour of the night that there are not whig hearts responding to its sentiments and whig hands responding to its solicitations to "be ready."

AGREEMENT.

The DEMOCRATIC and WHIG parties, being mutually desirous that the approaching election should be conducted on fair and honorable terms, without resort on either side to unusual or illegal means for the creation of voters not otherwise possessing in every respect the necessary qualifications for exercising the right of suffrage, have appointed committees for the purpose of agreeing on terms to carry the above object into effect, viz. The Democratic Executive Committee for the First Congressional District have appointed DENIS PRIEUR, JOHN L. LEWIS and EMILE LA SERE and the Clay Club have appointed GERODT BURKE, MARTIN BLACHE, Wm. L. HODGE, A. C. BULLITT and M. CRUZAT, who have mutually agreed on the following terms, viz:

1st. Neither party for the approaching election will qualify, or attempt to qualify any voters by means of false marriage, or pedlars licenses; by purchase of [illegible] or other property; by payment of the passage of [illegible] under the recent act of the Legislature, or by any other irregular or unusual modes: nor will they attempt to introduce any voters from one District, or [illegible] District to another by means of what is called, "Colonizing," but will rightly require a bona fide residence in the Ward or Parish where the party offers to vote, and will object to all votes offered on a temporary residence.

2d. That the challenging committees of both parties at the respective polls will challenge and jointly object to any such votes being received except in such cases where the party is well known to follow the profession [illegible] by his license under which he claims to vote, or is the bona fide owner of the property on which the license is issued, or on satisfactory proof being made to that effect by the oath of the party or otherwise.

3d. It is expressly understood that this agreement is to have a retrospective effect on all arrangements that may already have been made towards qualifying voters in any of the above modes, and is to be applied to any voters that may thus have been qualified.

4th. To avoid confusion and delay, it is agreed that not more than two regular challengers for each party shall be on duty at any one poll at the same time.

5th. The undersigned mutually and honorably pledge themselves that the above terms shall be carried into full effect, both in the letter and the spirit of the agreement, and that their best exertions and influence shall be used to discourage and prevent any violation of it, directly or indirectly, by any member of their respective parties.

6th. It is understood this agreement shall be submitted to the Democratic Executive Committee, and to the Clay Club, for their approval and ratification.

New Orleans, June 24, 1843.

G. BURKE, DENIS PRIEUR,
MARTIN BLACHE, JOHN L. LEWIS,
WM. L. HODGE, EMILE LA SERE,
A. C. BULLITT,
M. CRUZAT.

The undersigned, candidates of the respective parties for Congress from the First District, and for the State Legislature from the Parish of Orleans, fully approve of the preceding agreement, and mutually pledge themselves to abide thereby, and they earnestly but respectfully recommend to every member of their respective parties, to aid in carrying the same into full and bona fide effect.

New Orleans, June 24, 1843.

GEORGE K. ROGERS, JOHN SLIDELL,
FELIX LABATUT, SETH BARTON.

At a meeting of the Clay Club held on the 26th June, 1843, Mr. Hodge, on the part of the Committee appointed on the 19th instant, reported an agreement entered into with a Committee of the opposite party, which being read, was, on motion, unanimously

Resolved, That this Club approve the agreement entered into with the opposite party, as regards qualifying voters for the ensuing election, and recommend to all the members of the whig party to carry the same in good faith into full effect, for the whole of the Parish of Orleans, as well as all the First District.

Resolved, That the same Committee be continued, in order to superintend the execution of the agreement on the day of election, and with authority and instructions to act in concert, for that purpose, with the Committee of the opposite party.

Extract from the minutes.

C. C. WILLIAMS,
JULES BENIT, Secretaries.

The above agreement has also been ratified by the Democratic Executive Committee, but we [illegible] receive a copy thereof in time for the present publication.

WHIG MEETING TO NIGHT—SECOND MUNICIPALITY.

There will be a mass meeting to night at BANKS' ARCADE, second municipality, at which we hope to see a strong rally of the whig party. It ought to be well enough to say to our friends of the 2d Congressional District, that the locofocos are making some empty[illegible] professions touching the contest between WHITE and LA BRANCHE. The enemy encouraged by the apathy that has followed the success of our party must be up and doing something from the very morning confidence of the whigs of that district, have been making immense efforts to orket that well tried and tainted servant, Edward D. White. Mr. La Branche has been canvassing every parish with zeal and industry, and his friends have been active and energetic. From their combined efforts the locos have taken great comfort and courage. We would therefore, admonish our friends not to be taken by surprise. The enemy is in the field, and must be met with firmness and resolution.

It would be a disgrace to the whig party, if Mr. Wagner's election was jeopardied by their apathy and indifference to an election of such vast consequence to the good cause. We cannot think this meanly of them; but it is well enough to advise them of the expectations of the foe, that they may make preparations in season to sustain the fame and character of the "banner district."

THE THIRD DISTRICT.

The whig papers in the Third Congressional District are full of hope and confidence of the success of JAMES M. EVANS. We had scarcely dared to indulge the belief that in this section of the State, a man of even Mr. Evans's personal popularity and practical talents would be enabled to accomplish more than a reduction of the enemy's strength; but we are assured upon good authority, that he is making terrible havoc among the foe.—The Bayou Sara Chronicle expresses deliberately the opinion that JAMES M. EVANS is to be the next representative from the Third Congressional District of this State. He is running far ahead of the worst whig vote. The boundary of the Chronicle in relation to Mr. Evans are so appropriate that we copy them:

"He is a practical man in every sense of the word—and those are the men that the men that the people want in these times. He plain, straight forward good sense and settled judgment, not only in political and business matters and the ordinary affairs of every day life, but in every social relation, and every statesman like talent, we consider him most highly to the independent voters of this District. We believe that our whig friends in the other parishes of the district will do their duty, and we feel confident that every true whig—every friend of the dearest interests of Louisiana, and more particularly every man who prides himself on adherence to principle and property, will be at the polls early on this whig ticket, and exhibit his attachment to the institutions of his country. Further than all this, we would say to every voter, reflect on the prosperous country, and talents, the consistency of the two men, and then you cannot hesitate as to your choice.

We feel very confident that we shall have the pleasure of announcing Mr. Evans's election. And if the whigs in the District are true to themselves and their principles, they will achieve the greatest moral triumph at the ballot box—one, that they have ever had the good fortune to chronicle.

☞We publish to day the list of the White Committee of Vigilance for the Third Municipality. One fact is on that section must be awake and active, for the enemies are toiling hard to carry the good old Third.

☞We perceive that CHRISTOPHER COLES, Esq., declines appointment as "The Versailles Sugar Estate, of St. Charles." Wonder if this is not Mr. [illegible]'s sugar estate. If it is, we have of no plans as [illegible] to the production of the "Versailles sugars," as the [illegible] manufactures quite as much sugar as [illegible] can turn upon it.

YUCATAN.

We conveyed yesterday with a gentleman who left Merida on the 16th instant. He informs us that a number of cases of yellow fever had occurred in that city, but [illegible] with the epidemic was Mr. [illegible] of the house of [illegible] & Co., of that city. We further learn that all the Mexican troops and militia which had concentrated at Tekchac, had left the country, with the exception of Charley Gaines and Lieut. Chandler's son, the first brother and surgeon of the ill-fated Santa Anna. They were to proceed to Tekchac, but had permitted the Governor of Yucatan to be alleged for turn to Mexico on the solid ground with the remainder of their forces.

The Commissioners appointed on the part of Yucatan to meet those named by Mexico, at Vera Cruz, for the purpose of framing a permanent treaty of peace, would not leave the country until every Mexican soldier had quitted the shores of Yucatan.

Commodore Moore's services will be retained by the Yucatan as Governor or at all events, until the matter of peace between the two countries is definitely settled.

The Government has re-enacted that law of last year, [illegible] a barrel on flour, to take effect from and after the 1st July. Heretofore this article has been [illegible] free of duty on the condition that whenever the [illegible] of flour 196 bushels of corn should be entered.

The N. Y. Journal of Commerce of a late date, publishes the following commercial information:—

Gov. Barbachano had issued a decree admitting [illegible] into the various ports of Yucatan, on the payment of 20 per cent duty in addition to the ad valorem duty of 25 per quintal, the municipal imposts, and the five per cent permanent duty established by Art. II of the present commercial regulations. This decree to continue in force so long as the article continues a scarce in Yucatan, which point is to be determined by the Executive.

MEXICO.—The schooner Marie Adelaide, Captain Devanelle, from Tampico, brings Mexican intelligence to the 15th inst. The only news of importance contained in the papers is the announcement by an official communication from General Nicholas Bravo, of the [illegible] of Comanche Indians in the neighborhood of Chihuapa, and 1,800 in that of Tlapa. They have declared in favor of Federalism, and threaten to capture Chihuapa. Gen. Bravo solicits the assistance of the Government, and declares that without speedy succor, he will find it impossible to withstand the rebels.

CRIMINAL COURT.—In the case of the State vs. CHARLES J. MCKANNA, charged with arson, the jury, after being out all night, were unable to agree, and the prisoner was remanded for a second trial.

The Planters' Advocate of Ascension says, about three o'clock on Wednesday evening last a fire broke out in the house of Mr. Joseph Caliber, of Gonaives, burning that house and the dwelling of Mde Widow Victor Maurin, adjoining. Mde. Maurin was unable to save her furniture, &c., but nothing was saved from the house of Mr. Caliber.

ANOTHER BODY FOUND.—We learn from the Red Bayou Bora Chronicle that the body of a female child, supposed to be about five years of [illegible], was found in the Mississippi river, at Port Hudson, about two weeks since. It was much mutilated—probably by sturgeon and other fish.

THE BUNKER HILL CELEBRATION.

The celebration of the completion of the Bunker Hill Monument was one of the most imposing ceremonies that has ever been witnessed in the United States. The concourse of citizens from all parts of the Union was incredibly large. The President of the United States was present, as also the Governor and authorities of Massachusetts. The description given by the Eastern papers, the pageant was truly splendid, but however vast the multitude assembled or brilliant the appointment of the cortege, they were surpassed by the inherent grandeur of the occasion and the sublimity of the objects to be commemorated by the display.

We can give only a sufficient number of extracts from Mr. Webster's speech to acquaint our readers with the spirit of his address, which was certainly a most eloquent production. He was an hour and a half speaking, and the report from which we make quotations professes to be but a meagre account of what he said. The entire oration will shortly be published.

Mr. Webster commenced by saying:

A public duty has been performed—a work of patriotism and of gratitude is accomplished. That structure, having its broad foundations in a soil which drank deeply of early revolutionary blood, has at length reached its destined height, and now lifts its summit to the clouds.

After a brief exordium, Mr. W. proceeded to speak of the designers and founders of the Monument, the Societies which had directed or aided its construction, and of the eminent men who had given to the patriotic work their efforts and their means. He paid a feeling tribute to Bunker Hill, who constituted by far the most [illegible] of them, but whose forefathers were present, and passed to the Revolutionary Soldiery, of whom he said:

And here, too, are some—a feeble remnant—of those who stood arrayed on the field on the 17th of June, 1775—all scarred by the storms of War—they have pastured the wilds of the American Government—they have outlived the perils of a [illegible] threatening the Public Liberty—they have outlived many [illegible] who, but they have not outlived them among others, the ever-abiding gratitude of their countrymen. [illegible] Jesus chearing, [illegible] this occasion an opportunity of rendering service like the [illegible] manifesting such devotion to the [illegible] as [illegible] as theirs; but it [illegible] to [illegible] to [illegible] sentiment that we cannot [illegible] where we were not sure to [illegible].

Yes, Bunker Hill Monument is completed. Here it stands. Fortunate is the natural [illegible] on which it is placed—higher indeed is its pinnacle than [illegible] behold it rise over the land it [illegible] and visible at this moment to three hundred thousand of the People of Massachusetts. [illegible] the Past—a monitor to the Present—a [illegible] to the [illegible] generations. It was had no other purpose than the creation of a work of Art, the granite of which [illegible] composed had [illegible] slept in its native bed. But it was a purpose which [illegible] of dignity, and connects us [illegible] It is that purpose which has [illegible] to that purpose which [illegible] of a great intellectual [illegible] [illegible] of the [illegible] of this occasion. (Thunders of applause.) It was not from any [illegible] nor any human hope, that the [illegible] of Bunker Hill [illegible] to support and [illegible] the principles of the Revolution. The patriot sp
