RED SULPHUR SPRING, MONROE COUNTY, VIRGINIA—FOR SALE.

BY virtue of two deeds of trust made to John H Van Swearingen, Robinson, as trustees, dated, 1st. The first bearing date the 24th of September, 1832, the second, the 1st of November, 1835; the third, the 26th of January, 1837, the fourth, the 7th of February, 1838, and the fifth, the 5th of September, 1840, the four first of which deeds are from William Burke and wife, and the fifth from said Burke, and all of which are on record in the office of the Court of Monroe county, in Virginia—the undersigned trustees, or one of them, will, on the 16th day of August next, at the Red Sulphur Springs, in the said county of Monroe, sell at public auction, to the highest bidder, three parcels of land, in the said county of Monroe, lying on Indian creek, containing, by the patents, one of them 100 acres, another 30 acres, and the other 158 acres, making them, together, 291 acres, and being the same lands which were conveyed by James and John Harvey to the said Burke, and known as the Red Sulphur Springs Tract, with all the buildings thereon, the privilege of water thereon or thereto belonging and the appurtenances thereto; also that personal property as is embraced in the deed of the 24th of September, 1836, including much valuable furniture, one or more carriages, a stock of cattle, horses and sheep, work oxen, wagons and furniture.

And by virtue of the said fourth and fifth deeds, the said trustees, or one of them, will, at the same hour and place, sell at public auction, such of the personal property conveyed by the said two last deeds, as is not embraced in that of the 24th of September, 1836, consisting of horses, cattle, sheep, hogs, work oxen, wagons and furniture.

And by virtue of the said fourth and fifth deeds, the said trustees, or one of them, will, at the same hour and place, sell at public auction, such of the personal property conveyed by the said two last deeds, as is not embraced in the three first.

And by virtue of the fifth deed, the said trustees, or one of them, will, at the same hour and place, sell at public auction, such of the personal property conveyed by the said deed, as is not embraced in that of the 24th of September, 1836, consisting of horses, cattle, sheep, hogs, work oxen, wagons and furniture.

The sale will be for ready money, according to the terms of the said deeds, except as to one-half of such part of the purchase money of the lands, as will be for the conditions agreed to by the purchaser to secure his half of their creditors consent that there may be a credit of one and two years, bearing interest, the purchaser executing bond and deed of trust on the premises to secure the same. The trustees, or one of them, will convey such title as is vested in them by the said deed.
