

Official Journal of the State

BY BULLIET, MAGNE & CO.
No. 155, VOL. V.—NEW SERIES.

Country Paper, tri-weekly, one year in advance, $12.

Advertisements inserted in this paper will be charged for each line for each insertion, and for each copy of the paper furnished to the advertiser. The price of advertisements is the same as for the City of New Orleans. For a full description of the terms of the paper, see the back cover of the issue.

FOR PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES

HENRY CLAY

Monday Morning, July 9, 1843.

It is with much satisfaction that we learn from the friends of the Union that the election of Henry Clay for President of the United States is the result of the general feeling of the country. We are confident that the people will continue to support him, and that he will be able to maintain the Union in peace and harmony.

THE ELECTIONS.

The result of the election for President of the United States is the result of the general feeling of the country. We are confident that the people will continue to support Henry Clay, and that he will be able to maintain the Union in peace and harmony.

REMARKS OF HENRY CLAY

Delivered at the City of New Orleans, Monday Morning, July 9, 1843.

Mr. Speaker, I have the honor to thank you for the kind and courteous manner in which you have received me. I am confident that the people of this city will continue to support me, and that I will be able to maintain the Union in peace and harmony.

FOREIGN MARKETS.

LONDON, JUNE 28.—COTTON.—The market for cotton is dull, and the price of the goods is low. The market is expected to remain dull for some time to come.

AMSTERDAM, JUNE 28.—COTTON.—The market for cotton is dull, and the price of the goods is low. The market is expected to remain dull for some time to come.

NEW ORLEANS AND BALTIMORE.

The arrival of the ship "Washington" from Baltimore is expected to bring a large quantity of goods to New Orleans. The goods are expected to be sold at a low price, and the market is expected to remain dull for some time to come.

THE ARRIVAL OF THE GREAT WESTERN.

The arrival of the Great Western is expected to bring a large quantity of goods to New Orleans. The goods are expected to be sold at a low price, and the market is expected to remain dull for some time to come.

REMARKS OF HENRY CLAY

Delivered at the City of New Orleans, Monday Morning, July 9, 1843.

Mr. Speaker, I have the honor to thank you for the kind and courteous manner in which you have received me. I am confident that the people of this city will continue to support me, and that I will be able to maintain the Union in peace and harmony.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC.

Notice is hereby given that the goods of the ship "Washington" are expected to arrive in New Orleans on Monday morning, July 9, 1843. The goods are expected to be sold at a low price, and the market is expected to remain dull for some time to come.

REMARKS OF HENRY CLAY

Delivered at the City of New Orleans, Monday Morning, July 9, 1843.

Mr. Speaker, I have the honor to thank you for the kind and courteous manner in which you have received me. I am confident that the people of this city will continue to support me, and that I will be able to maintain the Union in peace and harmony.

REMARKS OF HENRY CLAY

Delivered at the City of New Orleans, Monday Morning, July 9, 1843.

Mr. Speaker, I have the honor to thank you for the kind and courteous manner in which you have received me. I am confident that the people of this city will continue to support me, and that I will be able to maintain the Union in peace and harmony.

REMARKS OF HENRY CLAY

Delivered at the City of New Orleans, Monday Morning, July 9, 1843.

Mr. Speaker, I have the honor to thank you for the kind and courteous manner in which you have received me. I am confident that the people of this city will continue to support me, and that I will be able to maintain the Union in peace and harmony.

REMARKS OF HENRY CLAY

Delivered at the City of New Orleans, Monday Morning, July 9, 1843.

Mr. Speaker, I have the honor to thank you for the kind and courteous manner in which you have received me. I am confident that the people of this city will continue to support me, and that I will be able to maintain the Union in peace and harmony.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC.

Notice is hereby given that the goods of the ship "Washington" are expected to arrive in New Orleans on Monday morning, July 9, 1843. The goods are expected to be sold at a low price, and the market is expected to remain dull for some time to come.

REMARKS OF HENRY CLAY

Delivered at the City of New Orleans, Monday Morning, July 9, 1843.

Mr. Speaker, I have the honor to thank you for the kind and courteous manner in which you have received me. I am confident that the people of this city will continue to support me, and that I will be able to maintain the Union in peace and harmony.

REMARKS OF HENRY CLAY

Delivered at the City of New Orleans, Monday Morning, July 9, 1843.

Mr. Speaker, I have the honor to thank you for the kind and courteous manner in which you have received me. I am confident that the people of this city will continue to support me, and that I will be able to maintain the Union in peace and harmony.

REMARKS OF HENRY CLAY

Delivered at the City of New Orleans, Monday Morning, July 9, 1843.

Mr. Speaker, I have the honor to thank you for the kind and courteous manner in which you have received me. I am confident that the people of this city will continue to support me, and that I will be able to maintain the Union in peace and harmony.

REMARKS OF HENRY CLAY

Delivered at the City of New Orleans, Monday Morning, July 9, 1843.

Mr. Speaker, I have the honor to thank you for the kind and courteous manner in which you have received me. I am confident that the people of this city will continue to support me, and that I will be able to maintain the Union in peace and harmony.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC.

Notice is hereby given that the goods of the ship "Washington" are expected to arrive in New Orleans on Monday morning, July 9, 1843. The goods are expected to be sold at a low price, and the market is expected to remain dull for some time to come.

SALES AT AUCTION.

Notice is hereby given that the goods of the ship "Washington" are expected to arrive in New Orleans on Monday morning, July 9, 1843. The goods are expected to be sold at a low price, and the market is expected to remain dull for some time to come.

REMARKS OF HENRY CLAY

Delivered at the City of New Orleans, Monday Morning, July 9, 1843.

Mr. Speaker, I have the honor to thank you for the kind and courteous manner in which you have received me. I am confident that the people of this city will continue to support me, and that I will be able to maintain the Union in peace and harmony.

REMARKS OF HENRY CLAY

Delivered at the City of New Orleans, Monday Morning, July 9, 1843.

Mr. Speaker, I have the honor to thank you for the kind and courteous manner in which you have received me. I am confident that the people of this city will continue to support me, and that I will be able to maintain the Union in peace and harmony.

REMARKS OF HENRY CLAY

Delivered at the City of New Orleans, Monday Morning, July 9, 1843.

Mr. Speaker, I have the honor to thank you for the kind and courteous manner in which you have received me. I am confident that the people of this city will continue to support me, and that I will be able to maintain the Union in peace and harmony.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC.

Notice is hereby given that the goods of the ship "Washington" are expected to arrive in New Orleans on Monday morning, July 9, 1843. The goods are expected to be sold at a low price, and the market is expected to remain dull for some time to come.