FOR PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES,

HENRY CLAY.

NEW-ORLEANS

THURSDAY MORNING, JULY 13, 1843.

THE NORTHERN MAIL failed yesterday from beyond Charleston.

THE CONVENTION.

We regard it as a highly fortunate circumstance that in most of the parishes throughout the state, the vote in favor of a convention to alter the constitution has been almost unanimous. Had the opposition to this measure been at all energetic, or had it numbered even a respectable minority, the convention question would have been indubitably defeated. The reason for this is readily made obvious. The constitution provides that whenever a majority of all the members of the legislature shall determine to submit to the people the propriety of amending the constitution, the question shall be voted upon at two separate and successive elections; and in order that it may be carried, it must receive in its favor at each trial, not a bare majority of the votes polled, but an absolute majority of all the assessed voters of the state. We have not the constitution by us, and quote from memory, but this is the spirit, if not the letter of the clause relative to the mode of amending that instrument.

At the election in July, 1842, there were over eleven thousand votes cast for a convention. This number was beyond all cavil, a decided majority of all the voters of the state. The question, however, still remained open, and at the late contest, the people were again required to express their approval or disapproval of the proposed changes. Now, though we have no means of accurately determining the number of votes polled throughout the state during the 3d, 4th and 5th days of July, we know that in many parishes the vote did not exceed two thirds of those rightfully entitled to the elective franchise, in others, it scarcely amounted to one-half, and in one or two—St. James for instance—it barely reached a third. Take for example Baton Rouge—there were 493 votes polled out of nearly 800 voters. In Iberville, Pointe Coupée and the Feliciana, the vote was likewise small. It is more than likely that a similar feeling of apathy and indifference prevailed in every other section of the state. But happily the votes against a convention are few and far between—probably not over a fifth or sixth of the whole number polled. We therefore entertain no doubt that the question has a second time received the sanction of an absolute majority of the suffrages of Louisiana.

☞ We "cotton to" the Tropic. Its concluding stanza to our metrical effusion has convinced us that in the way of lyrical efforts we "can't shine" in comparison with our fervid contemporary. That sugar planter will now go down to posterity married to immortal verse, and its owner will be forever associated with the sublimest conceptions of the muses.

LIKE AND SPECIMEN OF HENRY CLAY.—The last

sheets of Mr. DANIEL MALLORY's edition of the Like and Speeches of HENRY CLAY, were sent to the bookbinders in this city and New York on the 1st inst., and subscribers in New Orleans may expect to be supplied with the work complete about the 15th August. We have seen a letter from the editor in which he declares that it will be one of the elegant and finished works ever issued from the American press. In typographical execution as well as in the arrangement and style of the publication it will be a credit to the country. Those disposed to subscribe would do well to hand in their names to the agent Mr. MORTON QUIRK, as the subscription lists will be forwarded to New York in the course of a few days in order that the requisite number of copies may be sent out. The work will contain four magnificent engravings executed by DICK—specimens of which the agent will be able to exhibit in a day or two.

☞ A writer in the Richmond Enquirer is out with a long and elaborate article in favor of Mr. TYLER as the democratic candidate for President. He declares that Tyler is the only man who can possibly be elected. Esther Ritchie admits the communication, but cuts up its author in fine style. He tells him it is idle for Mr. Tyler to expect to receive the vote of the convention—that he stands no earthly chance of it—that if even he were the democratic candidate, he would be most shamefully defeated, &c. &c. He concludes by advising Mr. Tyler to continue his administration on "democratic" principles, and to retire quietly at the end of his four years, assuring him very gravely that nobody save a few office holders dreams of him as the next President of the United States. We have no doubt the Enquirer is right, but we do doubt that Mr. TYLER will be willing to accept the advice thus candidly tendered.—He is surrounded by men who constantly gull him by flattery as to his prospects and popularity, too gross for any sot-minded man, but which he nevertheless swallows with a vanity perfectly insatiable.

THIRD DISTRICT IN ALABAMA.—Brown and Lewis, the redoubted "champion of the flesh" of locofoco principles, has at length found an opponent in the person of Col. HENRY C. LEA, who in a spirited address, has announced himself as a candidate if no other whig will consent to run? The Alabama papers say that Mr. LEWIS will therefore not be allowed "to walk over the course." We really pity him if he has to assume any other gait. As for running over the course we question if he could accomplish it, even though a seat in congress were the guerdon of the exploit.

A SINGULAR GAME OF CHESS.—A game of chess has been playing at Cincinnati, which was commenced on the 2d of January last, and was only finished on the 14th of last month. The players are considered the best known in the West—one a native of Albany, New York, the other a native of Maysville, Kentucky—both gentlemen of the highest respectability, and merchants of Cincinnati. The game was kept up daily, Sundays excepted, from 10 in the evening till 3 in the morning.—No one was allowed to enter the room while the game was going on, only a few friends were admitted during the recess. The loser was to pay room rent (rated at boarding, cigars, ice, water, and theatre expenses, for both, during the time they should play. The Albanian was the winner. The bill was $107 75, which was promptly paid. Not a drop of intoxicating liquors or wines was used.—Crescent City.

It is perhaps not generally known that there is a gentleman who has been for many years a resident of our city, and has only temporarily left us, whose skill as a master of this most intricate, intellectual and beautiful game, has never met a rival in America. The gentleman in question, Mr. E..... R....., has encountered once the chess board prince of note, both in this country and in Europe, and has invariably proved victorious in a series of games. His resources and ingenuity are wonderful, and his theoretical knowledge of the game profound. He is now on a visit to France, where he will meet with St. Amand, the first player of the age.—We do not of course expect him to pluck the diadem from the brows of this grand master of chess, but we will venture the prediction that he will win laurels in the combat and nobly sustain the reputation of New Orleans, as containing within her limits the very best chess player in the United States.

WHALES IN SOUTHERN SEAS.—The Charleston Courier of Thursday last says:

A whale was caught by some negro fishermen on Bird Bank, about fifteen miles to the southward of the bar, on Tuesday last. When taken it was ashore, and must have been driven on the beach by the surf. It measures 10 feet 4 inches in length, and in breadth 2 feet 5 inches, or 6 feet 8 inches in circumference. It lived eight hours after it was taken.

FORTUNATE ESCAPE.—Last evening about dusk, as a skiff, containing four persons, was leaving the shore at Algiers, at the time the steam ferry boat was landing the skiff ran against the bow of the steamer and capsized. Two of the persons caught hold of ropes thrown to them from the steamer and got on board; a third swam to a flatboat about one hundred yards below. The fourth could not swim, and sunk to the bottom of the river. Fortunately he rose to the surface alongside of the skiff, and climbing upon the bottom, floated about a mile down the stream, and was at length seen and rescued.

NEW STAGE ROUTE.—At the recent letting of mail contracts at Washington city, the Postmaster General gave out a contract to convey the mail tri-weekly from Rome, in Georgia, to Holly Springs, in Mississippi, and from thence to Memphis. This establishes a communication from Charleston, on the Atlantic ocean, to Memphis, on the Mississippi.

☞ A blacksmith named LEA, was drowned a few days ago while bathing, near Mobile.

MORE FACTS FOR THE PEOPLE.—The present inquisitorial tariff is certainly fixing the people most enormously. See, for example, the following statements: The Baltimore Clipper, (neutral in politics,) remarks: "Now and then we find an editorial condemnation of the existing tariff, as ruinous to the country, and calculated to bene fit wealthy monopolists only. And yet it is a fact that goods of every description can be purchased at a lower price than before the tariff act was passed. Excellent broadcloth can be purchased at prices varying from two to six dollars, and other clothing cheap in proportion." Then there is Salt—an article of prime and universal necessity—the duty upon which has been the theme of many doleful Jeremiads, both on the stump and in the newspapers. The last Petersburg Intelligencer says, that "it may be found for sale at the store of a worthy Democratic friend of ours, in this town, at $1 62½ cents per barrel of 270 lbs. The salt was manufactured at the Saline works, New York, and is as good as the Liverpool salt, which sells at $1,75 and $2 per sacke of 200 lbs." Now what will be the effect? The foreign salt must come down to the price of the domestic, or it cannot find, what it is obliged to have, a market.—This is the process by which high duties make low prices—yet there are people who have eyes and see not, ears and hear not, minds but they will not understand!

DIED—Last night at 9 o'clock, Mr. JAMES WELSH, sail-Maker, a Member of the 1st Fellows Society of this City. The funeral will take place at 5 o'clock, this afternoon, from the corner of Toulouse an 1 Old Levee.

THE LONDON LANCET.—Morgan, of the Literary Depot, has received all the late numbers of the American republication of this valuable periodical. To the medical man it is a highly useful work for reference, and to the student full of instruction.

NEW HAMPSHIRE.—A correspondent of the Bay State Democrat states that a caucus of the Democratic members of the New Hampshire Legislature held a few days ago, Mr. VAN BUREN was nominated by a large majority.

EULOGY ON MR. LEGARE.—Col. WM. C. PRESTON has consented to deliver a eulogy on the late HUGH S. LEGARE. The period is fixed for the first Tuesday in November.

THE CROPS.—The prospects for Cotton and corn in North Mississippi, and so far as we can learn, may be considered pretty fair in the central parts of the State.—The farmers reckon on an average crop.

A VOICE FROM THE GRAVE.—An office seeker, fertile in invention, out west, recently sent a petition to the President, with five or six hundred names appended, all of which he copied from the tomb stones of the village burying place. He probably thought that as his neighbors held their peace, the very stones were bound to cry out.

SUNRISE.—The following pretty description is by Grace Harkaway:

The man that misses sunrise loses the sweetest part of his existence. I love to watch the first tear that glistens in the opening eye of morning—the first smile that Love's handmaid—the thrilling chant of the wood-land minstrels, to which the modest brook trickles applause—these awaking out the sweetest of sensations—sensations that pour some glad and merry tale into delight's ear, as if the world had dreamed a happy thing, and now awaked o'er the telling of it!

During the shower of rain which passed over the city yesterday afternoon, the house corner Bull and Smith streets, owned and occupied by Mrs. Robert Long, was struck by lightning. The fluid after striking one of the chimneys, passed down it, and entering the house, rushed out from one of the windows of the lower story, tearing it which was raised, not however before stripping off a quantity of the plastering, and doing some injury to the wall work of the house. Fortunately no one or children about the premises at the time, the mission whom left the shock very seen fully.—Charleston Courier.

LIQUOR AND HEMLOCK.—The official returns from West Baton Rouge and Iberville we have not yet seen, but we have good authority for stating that the majority for Mr. LARAZUE in the Senatorial district, is fifty-eight. This is more than double the vote by which the latter gentleman was elected, in reference to those gentlemen, and have given an emphatic sanction to the opinion entertained by many, that contesting elections for no other consideration than "the loaves and fishes" is a shade the same of the ballot box.—Baton Rouge Gaz.

TEMPERANCE IN MASSACHUSETTS.—The number of men pledged to total abstinence in the city of Boston is 29,955. In 87 towns of Massachusetts 99,113 persons have signed the pledge, being nearly one-third of the entire population. Of this number, 13,572 were confirmed drunkards. Allowing the same ratio for the other towns in the State, from which no returns have been received the number of pledged persons would amount to 200,000. The cause of Temperance is rapidly advancing, and reclaiming the lower and redeeming the fallen, and restored to their families, 50,000 confirmed drunkards.

☞ IMPORTATION OF AMERICAN MANUFACTURED Goods.—In the London public sales declared for the next week, there is an unusual and important item of 400 bales American manufactured goods, to be sold for home consumption or exportation. This is another proof of the future in our trade, and ought not to be overlooked by our manufacturers, as we understand that several parcels of similar goods are near at hand, and will be brought forward in the same manner.
