FOR PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES,

HENRY CLAY.

NEW ORLEANS:

TUESDAY MORNING, JULY 18, 1843.

☞ Those Subscribers from Canal to Julia streets do not receive their paper for two or three days, we beg their indulgence in favor of the Carrier, who is laboring under the prevailing disease. Influenza.

IMPORTANT FROM MEXICO.—REVOLUTION IN TOBASCO.

By the arrival of the schooner Robert Centre, Capt. SHEPPARD, from Tobasco via Sisal and Campeachy!, we are in possession of news from the former port up to the 30th ult.

A short time previous to the sailing of the schooner, General SENTMANAT, Governor-General of the Province of Tobasco, had revolted against the General Government, and was at the head of 600 men, preparing to make a stand against the troops under General ARTUDIA, which had been despatched against him. SENTMANAT's forces were daily increasing in numbers, and it is supposed he would be joined by a large number of the independent party in Yocatan, who are not altogether pleased with the late compact entered into by their own Government and Mexico.

General SENTMANAT was formerly a resident of this city, and is son-in-law to one of our oldest and most respectable citizens.

General Joaquin G. Rejon and Cresencio José Pinelo, the Commissioners appointed by the Government of Yucatan, left Campeachy on board of the steamship Regenerador, accompanied by the Secretary of the mission, Geronimo del Castillo, for Vera Cruz, to meet the Commissioners appointed by the Government of Mexico, for the purpose of forming a permanent treaty of peace between the two countries.

THE NEW CABINET.

The long existing uncertainty in relation to the composition of the Tyler Cabinet is finally removed, yesterday's mail having placed us in possession of the selection which the acting President has made. The Madisonian of the 8th inst, in an official communication says—

"We are authorized to announce that the Cabinet arrangements have at length been completed,
