FOR PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES,

HENRY CLAY.

NEW-ORLEANS.
WEDNESDAY MORNING, AUGUST 30, 1843.

NATURALIZATION.
CLAY CLUB ROOM.
(EXCHANGE PLACE.)
August 21, 1843.

At a meeting of the Club, held this day, it was on motion Resolved, That a suitable and competent person be appointed by the Clay Club, for the purpose of giving the necessary legal information to Foreigners, preparatory to their becoming naturalized citizens of the United States. All such persons members of the Whig party as may desire the advantage of such information are respectfully invited to call at the office of Colonel WM. CHRISTY, No. 21 St. Charles street, who will take much pleasure in affording them any facilities required.

CLAY CLUB ROOM.
[25 EXCHANGE PLACE.]
August 14th, 1843.

THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE of the DEMOCRATIC WHIG PARTY in this city for the sale of REAL ESTATE, respectfully give notice to such persons as may feel the importance of voting at our next MUNICIPAL STATE and PRESIDENTIAL ELECTIONS, and have not the PROPERTY QUALIFICATIONS required by law, that we are now prepared, on the most reasonable terms, to place them in the lawful possession of that inestimable privilege, by their making IMMEDIATE APPLICATION to the Secretary at our office as above, between the hours of 9 and 3.

By order of the Committee.
(Signed) S. W. DALTON,
Chairman.
J. CHARLES GOEBEL, Secretary.

☞ Wherever the locofoco party gain a victory, JOHN JONES, of the Madisonian, shouts "Jo Pean," and the Globe as regularly raps him over the knuckles for his causeless exultation. The simple-minded editor of the Government Official sees, or pretends to see, a TYLER triumph in the victories achieved by locofocoism, while the ruthless conductor of the Globe tells him in treacherous terms that the Democracy despise the President, and that their conquests augur any thing but his continuance in power. The moon-struck Madisonian is, however, prompt in hurling its feeble bulrush against the stalwart wight of the Globe, who receives the puny and pointless missile on his shield, and in return swings his ponderous mace, penetrating Tylerism at every whirl of the weapon. The contest between these worthies would be really amusing, but that the utter disparity of the two antagonists excites emotions of pity in behalf of the weaker, and blunts the relish with which we might otherwise witness the fray. The Madisonian man is no match whatever for the Globe. Mr. JONES in the gripe of BLAIR, is a Lilliputian in the hands of a giant. With a more generous adversary, the insignificance of the Madisonian would prove its protection; and its impotent show of chivalry and courage might be laughed at, as the curled minions of the second CHARLES used to laugh at the bold strut and mock heroic prowess of Sir GEOFFREY HUDSON. But the Globe man is habitually ferocious and sanguinary. He spares no one in the combat, and will pause in his career equally to tomahawk an infant or encounter the throes and sinews of a warrior. Thus whenever the Madisonian ventures to claim TYLER victory in the recent achievements of locofocoism, the Globe strips the braggart of his pretensions without a shadow of compunction, and will not allow him to assert his share even in the echo of Democratic "thunder."

We formerly marvelled at the pertinacity with which so acute a head has been sighted a politician as he of the Globe continued his assaults on that mere thing or shreds and patches yclept Tylerism. That is sincerely dreads the power and influence of the President is prosterous. Such a belief argues great want of sagacity in the Globe, or absolutely more venality and conception than we had ever ascribed to locofocoism. The secret of its attacks is not unlikely to be found, partly on the desire to promote Mr. VAN BUREN and subdue the rebellious movements of CALHOUN, for whose advancement the administration is evidently laboring, and partly in the natural virulence and uncompromising bitterness that always marked the Globe. Time has improved Mr. BLAIR's fortune, since he was a pensioner on the bounty of Mr. CLAY; but it has not mellowed the tone and temper of the sheet which he condocts. He has never forgiven Mr. CALHOUN for the withering invective poured upon him by that gentleman some eight years ago, any more than he has pardoned Mr. CLAY for taking him by the hand when a stricken and impoverished man, and placing him in the road to wealth. Hence he is savage upon Tylerism for its supposed connection with Mr. CALHOUN, just as he abuses the whigs because Mr. CLAY is their champion. He is more effective in the one case than in the other; for unfortunately for the President, his supporters are few, and in the metropolis he has no other friend than the perhaps honest, but certainly inefficient and weak-minded JOHN JONES.

SUBSCRIPTION FOR MR. HUBERTO'S FAMILY.—The Baton Rouge Gazette requests the various editors in this State to announce that subscription lists will be opened for the relief of the late JOSE HUBERTO. We make this announcement most readily, and trust that a substantial sum may be contributed by the citizens of Louisiana, in behalf of the bereaved widow and children of the deceased.

☞ We are glad to announce that the favorite steamboat Brilliant, Captain JESSE HART, has resumed her regular trips to and from Bayou Sara and this city.—She starts to-day for Bayou Sara. We recommend the Brilliant as one of the finest boats on the river, and Captain HART as an experienced, urbane and attentive commander.

REELING OR SILK.—To-day from 10 till half-past 3 o'clock, Mr. COMBE, an experienced rearer of worms and manufacturer of silk, will reel a number of cocoons of domestic silk, made in this city. The reel, it is said, will make twisted raw silk of a superior quality—it is quite simple and very cheap. The experiment will take place in a store in Conti street, between Chartres and Levee. It is well worth witnessing.

☞ A negro woman, nearly 55 years of age, belonging to a creole family in the parish of St. Landry, has had thirty five children. Her first child was born at the age of 25. She gave birth to twins five times, to triplets three times. Twenty of her children are at present living. These facts are stated on the authority of an Opelousas paper.

LOCOFOCO REJOICING.—The Louisville Journal says: The locofocos in Indiana have been firing cannon, in consequence of their victory in that state. Let them fire away, and perhaps the noise they make will awaken the old coon which has been in a very somnolent condition lately in that state.

☞ We perceive by the New York papers, that Mr. DANIEL MALLORY's splendid edition of the Life and Speeches of HENRY CLAY has at length been published. The press speaks of it in very high terms. Subscribers in this section of the country, will doubtless be supplied with copies, in the course of a few weeks.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—On Friday afternoon last, says the Baltimore Patriot, Mr. GEORGE H. PERRIMAN, farmer, near Havre de Grace, formerly Postmaster at Perrimansville, had his arm caught in the machinery of a threshing machine, and so dreadfully mangled that immediate amputation became necessary. He lingered in excruciating pain until the following morning, when he died.—Some physicians who attended to be in the neighborhood at the time, were promptly called, but their aid proved unavailing. The deceased was a gentleman highly esteemed by all who knew him. He has left a wife and family to lament his premature death.

ANOTHER DREADFUL ACCIDENT.—Miss Mary Miller, a respectable young lady, while walking on the Columbia Rail Road, Philadelphia, was knocked down by the horses attached to a pleasure car, and fell upon the road in such a manner that two of the wheels of car passed directly over her neck, causing instant death.

THE VILLAGER is the title of a new and neat looking hebdomadal published at Narkeville, Avoyelles, La. It is to be neutral in politics and devoted to agriculture and general intelligence.

☞ The Savannah Clay Club have made arrangements to establish a new cheap political paper, to be edited by a committee of their own number, for the purpose of meeting their opponents with their own weapons. This is a good idea.

☞ The Richmond Enquirer of the 22d has the following pertinent paragraph, which we put on record, that we may refresh the Enquirer's memory in the event (improbable we admit) of Mr. CALHOUN receiving the nomination of the national convention:—

"We speak with all possible frankness and freedom, because the "Old Dominion" has set us the example. We do not believe there is a single state north of the Potomac, which Mr. Calhoun can now carry, and not one to the west, unless it may be Alabama and Mississippi. We speak not our own "favorite hobby," without reference to any thing else, or to speak the result."

A NEW POSITION.—The New York correspondent of the National Intelligencer,—capital authority in the court of the Muses, has the following announcement in his last letter:

"A lady has made her first literary appearance in the Mirror this week, who shows something of Mrs Hemans' prodigality of imagination and language. The poem is called 'Herod's Birthday,' and is worthy your attention. The authoress is Mrs. Mary Donnelly, of Oswego, formerly Miss Wells, of Athens, on the Susquehannah. I predict for her great celebrity among our poetesses."

☞ The Baton Rouge Gazette notices the arrival in that city of the corpse of Mr. MUNROE, and his consignment to the tomb, in the following terms:

"His body was brought here on Monday in the Ike Vicks, the news of his death reaching Baton Rouge by the Clipper about two hours previous. Capt. Scott of the Ike Vicks deserves our thanks and gratitude, for his kind consideration in delaying the arrival of his boat, to afford a chance to the Clipper of beating the sad thing news to this town, before the arrival of the body, to spare as much as possible the too sudden shock to his bereaved and afflicted family, who were entirely ignorant of the affair. On the arrival of the Ike Vicks a crowd had gathered on the Levee, who felt deeply the loss this town had sustained. The body was carried and deposited in his editorial sanctuary, where but a few days before he had sat in all the buoyancy of manhood, penning the effusions of his bold and independent mind, and at 10 o'clock his remains was taken from his late resting place, followed by a procession of his friends, sincerely lamenting his untimely end.

"Requiescat in pace."

ROBBERY AND ATTEMPT TO MURDER.
From our Correspondent.
Office of the Buffalo Gazette, August 18.

A most daring and deliberate attempt to murder was made in this city, during the night of Wednesday last, on board of the schr. Sarcelona, now lying in our harbor. The sufferer's name is John Neest, the master of the Barcelona—and that of the robber, Edward Lyon, the cook, a boy only 16 years old. Mr. Scott had down for the night on the bow hatch, with his pantaloons on, having in his pocket about $20 in money, and Lyon laid down near him, on the deck, there being two of the crew on board who were asleep. About 4 o'clock in the morning. Scott found that he was bleeding very profusely from wounds in his head and face. He tried to cry out, but could make no one hear. He then crawled to the after hatch and alarmed his roommate, below, who, upon coming on deck, found him most terribly mangled. They immediately gave information to the police, and called Dr. WILCOX, who dressed the wounds —about twelve in number, and some of them very severe. The wounds are all on the face and the front part of the head; and the physician thinks that the patient may recover. Lyon has been arrested.

It is said that Com. JONES, who took possession of Monterey, in California, has been removed from the line of promotion, with an annuity of $600.
Baltimore Sun.

The above is an entire mistake. The affair at Monterey has been settled to the entire satisfaction of the Mexican Government, in short ever the impossibility of a resort to a court martial. All the punishment inflicted on Com. J. was to withdraw him from his command.—The officer who has been put on furlough with $600 per annum, is Lieut. Arthur Lewis, who was lately in command of the brig Porpoise on the Coast of Africa.

BOILING.—We regret to learn that the Rev. Matthew Hansbrell, of Anderson District, committed suicide by hanging himself, on the 14th inst. We have not heard the particulars or causes attending this melancholy event, but have no doubt it was occasioned by partial insanity. Mr. G. was about fifty years of age, and had been for many years an able and exemplary Minister of the gospel in the Baptist Church.

☞ Two curious philosophical facts are stated on the authority of the foreman of the Rope-walk in the Navy Yard at Charlestown. One is, if you heat tar, such as they use for their cables, one hundred degrees above boiling heat, you may dip your hand into it with the greatest impunity, and they are in the constant habit of doing so; the other is, the heathern straps coming from the engine, and working the machinery, are highly charged with electricity. A standing upon a non-conducting body, and holding the finger over the straps for a pretty close, you become charged with the electric fluid and give out sparks as from an electrifying machine."

ALLEGED OUTRAGE.—A person of the name of Page, known throughout the parish as a well-digger, has been charged with attempting to violate the person of a girl, scarcely seven years of age. The father of the girl, who resides near Grand Chateau, has made the affidavit against Page. The bail required for his appearance in the Recorder's office was fixed at $1,000, in default of procuring which, he remains lodged in the Parish Jail.—Opelousas Gazette.

ANOTHER WASHINGTON NOMINEE!—The New York papers speak of a magnificent monument to be erected in that city to the memory of Washington. A description of it is thus given:—"The upper look-out will be 300 feet from the base, making the whole height from the walk to the top of the pinnacle 425 feet. The estimated cost of this magnificent structure is not to exceed $400,000." This sum is to be raised by contributions of one dollar and upwards from the people on the United States."

CHEERING.—Cotton-picking has now fairly begun and the weather is very favorable, there having been no rain for eight or ten days. The quality too, is very good—no doubt owing to the weather—but the crop will certainly be short. But little of the new crop as yet has been sent to market, therefore we can form no just estimate as to the ultimate prospects of the planters, though we anxiously wish they may realize a fair price for what little they do make, so as to enable them to pay up old scores,—that done, and West Feliciana would not only be independent, but have something to spare for charity.—Bayou Sara Chronicle.

HANGED FOR A SINGLE LINE.—Home one day complained in a mixed company, that he considered himself very ill used by the world, for by its unjust and unreasonable censures, adding, that he had written many volumes, throughout the whole of which were but a few pages that could be said to contain any reprehensible matter; and yet for these few pages he was abused and torn to pieces. The company for some time paused; when at length a gentleman drily observed that he put him in mind of an old acquaintance, a notary public, who, having been condemned to be hanged for a forgery, lamented the extreme injustice and hardship of his case, inasmuch as he had written many thou-and inoffensive sheets, and now he was to be hanged for a single line.

A BOGGLER IN FLATTERY.—There was my poor friend Snifter; he hated pig and prune sauce as he hated a poor relative; nevertheless for twenty years did he consent to eat it at his uncle's table, nor could he find words rich enough wherewith to do honor to uncle's pig and prune sauce. Uncle died. "Thank heaven," cried Snifter, "I shall now receive my reward in hard cash for my sacrifice to that d—d pig and prune sauce." The will was read, and thus was Snifton rewarded: "And I hereby give and bequeath to my dearly beloved nephew Peter Snifter, the undertaking of his peculiar love for my pig and prune sauce, the whole and sole receipt whereby he may cook it." My son, be wary and avoid such wretches.—Punch's Letter to his Son.

OREGON.—We learn from the Liberty Banner that Major Albert Wilson, who has just returned from the mountains, met the Oregon emigrants on the Big Arkansas, one month after they had left the settlements, and that they were cheerfully wending their way onwards. The number of emigrants, 175 wagons, and a great number of cattle, horses, mules, &c. Lord Stewart and his party of pleasure, consisted of one hundred persons, were three days in advance of the Oregon emigrants.

The ship Memphis, lately stranded near Cape Hatteras, having been got afloat and towed round to Hampton Roads by the steamer Boston, of this port, was on Sunday evening, taken in tow by the Mutual Safety steamboat for that port—her previous destination, and proceeded as far as the Capes, but owing to the unfavorable state of the weather was compelled to return and anchor in the roads again.—Norfolk Herald, Aug. 22.

DIED, in the parish of St. John the Baptist, on the 23d instant, after a brief illness, Dr. THOMAS NORVELL, late Postmaster of that parish. The deceased was a gentleman of many excellent and sterling qualities.—For a number of years he had presided over the Post-office department of his parish, and had only been removed a few weeks previous to his demise. Dr. NORVELL was a brother both of C. C. NORVELL, Esq., the able editor of the Nashville Whig, and of ——— NORVELL, ex-United States Senator from Michigan.
