NEW-ORLEANS:
MONDAY MORNING, SEPTEMBER 11, 1843.

WHIGS OF THE FIRST MUNICIPALITY.

The undersigned have been appointed a Committee to take measures for the immediate organization of the Association in this Municipality. In pursuance of the duty imposed upon them, they respectfully invite a meeting of the Whigs of the First Municipality, at the St. Louis Ball Room, on Monday evening next, at 7 o'clock; in order to proceed to the permanent organization of the Whigs of the Municipality is desired.

WHIGS OF THE THIRD MUNICIPALITY.

At a meeting of the Clay Club on Monday evening, the 4th instant, it was resolved that a Democratic Whig Association should be formed in each of the three municipalities, for the purpose of securing a more complete and efficient organization of the party, prior to the approaching elections.

The undersigned have been appointed a Committee to take measures for the immediate organization of the Association in this Municipality. In pursuance of the duty imposed upon them, they respectfully invite a meeting of the Whigs of the Third Municipality, at the Coffee-house Liberty and Union, on the Levee, this evening at 7 o'clock, in order to proceed to the permanent organization of the Association, on the most liberal and popular principles. A full attendance of the Whigs of the Municipality is desired.

CLAY CLUB ROOM.

[25 Exchange Place.]

THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE of the DEMOCRATIC WHIG PARTY in this city for the sale of REAL ESTATE, respectfully give notice to such persons as may feel the importance of acting at this next MUNICIPAL STATE and PRESIDENTIAL ELECTIONS, and have not the PROPERTY QUALIFICATIONS required by law, that we are now prepared, on the most reasonable terms, to place them in the lawful possession of that inestimable privilege, by their making IMMEDIATE APPLICATION to the Secretary at our office as above, between the hours of 9 and 3, and from 5 to 8 every day.

By order of the Committee.
(Signed) S. W. DALTON,
Chairman.
J. Charles Guenet, Secretary.

☞ The Courier asserted that for the last twelve-month not a solitary whig paper, save perhaps the Richmond Whig, had uttered a syllable in favor of a National Bank. This assertion we have shown to be incorrect. It further declared Mr. Clay to be in favor of the paper system in its worst form. This, to be sure, is a matter of opinion. According to our contemporary to advocate a National Bank is supporting the paper system in its worst form—according to the party, the establishment of such an institution is maintaining the paper system in its best, soundest and healthiest form. The argument of the Courier on this point is wholly ex parte.

In regard to the personalities of the Courier we have nothing to say. Whenever that journal offers opinions or arguments which we deem it our duty to controvert, we shall do so frankly and fearlessly.—Scurrilous attacks and personal allusions which are as uncalled for as they are undignified, we shall pass unnoticed.

MARSHAL BERTRAND.—On Saturday last this venerable hero visited the battle ground, accompanied by his Honor the Mayor, a number of Aldermen and several private citizens. The care of the Mexican Gulf Rail Road were tendered to him by the agents; and on returning, the first municipality Ferry boat escorted him and his companions to Carrollton, where he was received with every demonstration of respect and kindness.—The Marshall left Carrollton about 5 o'clock, P. M. for the city, returning by the cars; and dined with a select company, at the house of a friend.

We are pleased to perceive that the authorities of our city, without distinction of origin or language, outvie each other in the attentions paid to their virtuous and honored guest. The military fame of Gen'l Bertrand, transcendant as it may be, pales before that brighter and more enduring renown which his heroic and steadfast devotion and friendship have acquired.—The honors he receives from the citizens of this country are not tributes to his valor, but meeds of reverence for his virtue.

☞ The Ladies' Dining Room of the St. Charles Hotel was thronged yesterday from the hours of one to three o'clock, with a stream of visiters assembled to exchange greetings with General Bertrand. The Firemen of our city, in their uniform, met the veteran in a body, and extended and received appropriate courtesies. The interest manifested by the citizens of the Second Municipality in the *reception of the General, may be in*ferred from the fact that from his arrival to his departure a dense crowd absolutely blockaded the Hotel and avenues leading to the room in which visiters were received

☞ It is with deep regret that we have to announce the demise of the Hon PAUL BERTUS, Recorder of the First Municipality, who departed this life yesterday evening at 11 o'clock, after a short but painful illness. His funeral will take place this afternoon, at half past four o'clock.

☞ We hear it rumored that Marshal Bertrand intends visiting General Jackson. The meeting of the two veterans would doubtless be fraught with interest.

☞ Our thanks are due Messrs. Bravo & Morgan, for the August number of Campbell's Monthly Magazine. Besides the usual excellent selections from the best British periodicals, the present number is embellished with two handsome illustrations.

☞ We are indebted to our good friend Gyles of the steamer Concordia, for late river papers.

RHODE ISLAND.—The Law and Order ticket has 9600 majority in the State. Cranston's majority is about 1600; Potter's 1096. Well done little Rhody.

NEW COTTON.—The steamer Native, at Mobile, brought down from Wetumpka a bale of new cotton, raised on the plantation of Charles Cromlin, Esq. Montgomery county. A prize of a silver cup was awarded for this bale. The quality of the cotton is fully fair. One hundred and thirty-seven bales of new cotton have, up to the 9th instant, been received at Mobile.

WHIG VICTORY IN SAVANNAH.—The municipal election in Savannah, on the 4th inst., was carried by the whigs after a very severe contest. Last year the locofoco ticket received 607 votes, and the whig 488. This year, the whig ticket have 596 votes, and the loco 570. Eleven out of fourteen aldermen elected are whigs. The result proves that Savannah is revolutionised, and secures a whig majority in Chatham county (Ga.) which has usually gone for the locos.

INDIANA—OFFICIAL.—The vote for Governor of Indiana is the following: Whitcomb, (locofoco,) 60,714; Bigger, (whig,) 56,701; Deming, (abolitionist,) 1664.—Whitcomb's majority over Bigger, 3013; over all, 359.—Three whigs and seven locos are elected to Congress.—It is thought, however, that McGaughey, one of the whigs, will give up his seat, as the vote of a precinct was rejected on account of informality, which, if admitted, would elect Wright, (locofoco,) by three majority.

FIVE DAYS LATER FROM EUROPE.

The steamer Hibernia had not arrived at Halifax on the 1st, but the Margaret, Capt. Sherman, arrived at *Halifax on Sunday, the 27th ult., bringing files of Lon*don papers to the 9th and Liverpool to the 10th ult.

The news, except from Spain, is unimportant. The markets remain in precisely the same state as by our last advices per the Great Western. The disturbances in South Wales still continue.

The agitation on the subject of Repeal still continues, but apparently with less violence. At the usual weekly meeting of the Repeal Association in Dublin on Monday the 7th August—

Mr. O'Connell read a letter from the Rev. Mr. M'Carthy, of Manchester, in which he charged Lord John Russell with opposing the desire of the Catholic clergy to visit the jails of that town. Mr. O'Connell said that this was another proof of the ill-conduct of the Whig party when in power. He would rather have twenty Tories in power than one such Whig as the pitiful Lord John Russell.

Mr. Duffy, of the Nation, handed in £60 from various parts of the country.

A gentleman, who had for some time been sitting beside Mr. O'Connell, here addressed Mr. Steele, and handing him his card, requested an introduction to Mr. O'Connell. Mr. Steele accordingly presented the card and intimated that Mr. James Gordon Bennett, of New York, was present.

Mr. O'Connell replied—He is a person with whom I can have nothing to do—he is the editor of the New York Herald, one of the most infamous gazettes ever printed, and I shall have nothing to say to him.

This was a reception that Mr. Bennett did not count upon, and he forthwith proceeded to take his departure. *The room being very full his movement was much re*tarded; but by the aid of the chairman he struggled out amid the groans of the meeting.

SPAIN.

Downfall of Espartero—Complete success of the Revolution.—The revolution in favor of the Queen of Spain is complete. The Messager and the Moniteur Parisien of Saturday night, contain the following Telegraphic Despatch:—

Embarkation of Espartero for England.

"Perpignan, August 4.—The Regent embarked at Cadiz on the 30th ult. at four o'clock in the morning, on board the Malabar, British ship of war of 72 guns.

"General Concha had pursued him with 600 horse up to Port St. Mary, where he took a boat.

"The Spanish brigatie, the Constitucion, and several small vessels blockaded Cadiz. The Malabar, and the Ville de Marseilles and the 4 Asses (French ships of war,) were at Cadiz."

THE LATEST NEWS FROM SPAIN.

Accounts from Madrid of the 3d inst., state that the seige of Seville was only raised on the night of the 29th ult.; but it is confidently believed by the Regent and his friends on the morning of the 30th with an escort of 3 or 400 cavalry. Gen. Concha had set out in pursuit of him with 500 horse in the hope of cutting off his retreat, but finding he was fired upon by the troops left to guard the bridge of Suaze, which connects the Island of Leon with the continent, he was obliged to retrace his steps. He then ever fell in with Espartero's escort at Puerto Real, and was informed by them of the flight of the Regent. He was then embarking at Puerto de Santa Maria, with Gen. Noguerue, the Minister of War, M. de la Serna, the Minister of the Interior, Gen. Linage, &c.

The last point to which they were known to have gained an offing and placed itself under the protection of the cannon of the Malabar, British ship of the line, the commander of which refused to admit them on board until he had consulted on the subject by the English Consul at Cadiz. The order however soon reached, and the Regent and his friends were received in the ship. The Regent was still on board the 31st, but before he set his foot in the Malabar the city pronounced and installed a Junta. The Regent then sailed for Lisbon.

The despatch of the political chief of Seville, M. Manuel Cepero, dated 25th, 7 o'clock A. M., announcing the raising of the siege, states that it had lasted 21 days, and the bombardment 10, in the course of which 1,200 projectiles had been thrown into the city. "We have," he says, "strong hope to deplore—the streets are encumbered with ruins, many houses and edifices which were so strongly built as to last for ages if not thus assailed, are now leveled with the ground and the sentiment of liberty proudly waves on our magnificent cathedral."

On the 2d a deputation of five members left Madrid for Seville to present a gold crown of Laurel to the Queen, in the name of the Queen, together with a letter complimenting the city in the most glowing terms upon its resistance. General Alvarez, the Captain General of Grenada, and General Oussett, the Colonel of the Regiment of Lusitania, form among the prisoners taken by Gen. Concha.

The juntas of Valladolid, Valencia, Vittoria, Salamanca, Oviedo, Pamplelona, and Avila, had recognised the Provisional Government of Madrid. That of Barcelona only maintained the supremacy it had assumed at the commencement of the insurrection, and strongly urged the formation of a Sovereign Central Junta. It had even appointed two members to that Junta, who left for Madrid on the 1st inst.

The Madrid Gazette contains the subjoined document, addressed both to Espartero and Van Halen:

"Most Excellent Senor—The government of the nation which, in the name of her Majesty Queen Isabella II., and by the almost unanimous will of the provinces, has taken the direction of public affairs, cannot see without sorrow that your Excellency, deceiving the few who have been unable to follow the general feeling of the Spaniards, obstinately continues to protract the opposition as needless as it is unjust. It will appear incredible to posterity that your Excellency, reduced to three or four towns and a few thousands of misled men, should misplessure in rowing the dark sentiments which lead Barcelona to the brink of ruin, and most commercial cities were the sing of those who counsel so barbarous a means of opposing the wish of the people. The government of the nation warns your Excellency, that if, after receiving this communication, hostilities continue against Seville, or any other town of the kingdom, your Excellency and all that co-operate with you in this obstinate resistance will be declared traitors to the country, deprived of all your honours, and declivered up to the execration of Spaniards, and all mankind.

FRANCISCO SERRANO.

"Madrid, July 27, 1843.

"To their Excellencies the Duke of Victoria and Morella, and the Count de Peracamps."

An Extraordinary Gazette, published on the 29th, announces the submission of Saragossa to the provisional government, on condition of the whole National Guard of that city continuing armed and organized under the control of the constitutional Ayuntamiento. In the same print there is a decree accepting the resignation of the Madrid Ayuntamiento, and temporarily forming another, composed of the following Alcaldes: Don J. F. Domenech, D. P. Madero, the Marquis del Socorro, D. Monreal, and D. Villarreal.

A communication had been received from the Junta of Burgos, to the effect that they had arrested General Seoane, and ordered him to be detained until his guilt or innocence was established by tryal.

General Narvaez has been appointed Captain-General of Cuba. General Rosnell and Brigadiers Leon-cha and Cordova have set out from Madrid with the reinforcement proceeding to Andalusia.

The Provisional Government have addressed a manifesto to the Spanish people, in order to prove its lawfulness and announce the approaching convocation of the Cortes. It is signed by all the members of the Lopez Cabinet.

The Queen and her sister drove out as usual on the 30th, and seemed in excellent spirits. The members of her Majesty's household had been almost all changed. In addition to the Dukes de Bavlen and Saragossa, who had been appointed her guardian and commandant of the palace, Marshal Hiskie, the widow of a General of Irish origin, who distinguished himself in the war of Independence, had succeeded to Madame Mina as her Ayo or Governess; and Mll. Lujan and Heriz, her tutor and Lectenderess, had made room for Mll. Moreon Lopez and Contero.

M. Gonzales Bravo was engaged in drawing up the decree for the dissolution of the Cortes, which it was expected would determine most of the Justas to disperse.

It was said that General O'Donnell had declined the Captain-Generalship of the Havana, and that Serrano had offered it to Baron de Meer.

Saturday's Paris papers contain the following telegraphic despatches:—

"Bayonne, August 3.—The siege of Seville was raised on the night of the 29th to the 30th. The Regent passed on board the Malabar, off the coast of Cadiz.

Bayonne, Aug. 4.—By a decree of the 30th July the C
