FOR PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES
HENRY CLAY.
NEW-ORLEANS:
WEDNESDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 25, 1843.

WHIGS OF ORLEANS!

Look at our election news in to-day's paper! Glorious as PENNSYLVANIA, almost regenerated; at dilemmaralled OHIO; at BALTIMORE completely redeemed from the yoke of loculocosism. Have not the October election brought cheering and comfort to the heart of every whig, and will they not gladden the sight and animate the soul of the sage, patriot and statesman at Ashland? WHIGS OF ORLEANS, take pattern after your brethren. Be up and doing—Resolve to efface the stain of the locofoco triumphs of last July. Organize; act; let harmony mark your councils and energy inspire your conduct. With such examples before us we must redeem Louisiana.

THE ELECTIONS.

Another Glorious and unexpected Victory in Baltimore.

When the whigs carried Baltimore at the late delicate election, the locofoco press declared most solemnly that it was entirely attributed to Democratic apathy. Well, said they, till the election for Mayor on the 16th, when the Democrats having nominated a popular candidate, will turn out in mass and dash the whigs most successfully." Well, the 16th did arrive. The democratic paid-united Gen'l. Manager, a very strong man. Charleston about the last of October, and

[illegible] delegates' election. But unfortunately the whigs [illegible] and our ten, and with a plain gentleman, Mr. LAW [illegible] SUCCEEDED BY AN INCREASE [illegible] MAJORITY, and carried the City Council for the [illegible] in many years. The entire vote polled was [illegible] about the heaviest ever cast in Baltimore—[illegible] is as follows:

[illegible] Mr. Law (w.)	7,020
[illegible] Harnett, (L. L.)	6,893
Law's majority.	127

At the state election on the 4th inst., the vote was only [illegible] for the whig assembly ticket was 97—making the whig gain 76, in the face of a largely increased vote. The Baltimore American says:—

"The most extraordinary efforts were made by the Locofocos party to elect their candidate, but the only effect of these efforts was, as the result has proved to demonstrate more clearly the triumph of Whig principles by an increased majority. From what Baltimore has done at the two elections held in the present month, our friends abroad may infer what the result will be at the Presidential election in 1844, when HENRY CLAY stands before the people for their suffrages.

A larger vote was cast yesterday than at any previous election. At the Presidential election in 1840, the entire vote was 14,621.

To the City Council the Whigs have elected 16 and the locofocos 12 members. Who shall now say that Baltimore is a locofoco city?

PENNSYLVANIA.—The returns from Pennsylvania are still incomplete but are so far, most cheering. The members to Congress elect, so far as ascertained, are as follows:—
