

The New-Orleans Evening Star

18 V. NEW SERIES

FOR PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES
HENRY CLAY.

NEW-ORLEANS,
MONDAY MORNING, JANUARY 1, 1844.

SIXTEEN DAYS LATER FROM EUROPE.
Yesterdays arrival of the Clay Club will be followed by the 2d Eastern Plan on Tuesday evening, at 8 o'clock. A dinner is requested.

ALFRED ROOSEVELT,
C. MURKIN, & C. S. T. HARRIS,
SECRETARIES.

WE wish our readers the compliment of the New paper will be issued from this office to-morrow.

THE NEW YEAR.

Riches, hundred and fortunes—without its food
and its broiled joy and blazed hope, has passed away, and with it we trust the apathy, the indifference,

the want of interest, the lack of ambition, the
and the particularities which bound us to the past, the present, and the future.

New Brasilia sprang from the ground as if it were created for the express purpose of being a great city, and it will remain to be seen if the same can be done for the new year.

THE PLEASURES OF LIFE.

It is the book of fate—but He is only the amanu-

ensis of Life—that writing—of creation.

Let us now exuse the omniscience of He, and let us go to work to make the best of the present.

Industry will remould the history of the times.

It is the book of fate—but He is only the amanu-

ensis of Life—that writing—of creation.
